guard Reece Webb and another senior guard Jack Corbin, who comes in at 6-5 and 295. Blake Graham is another 290-pounder who lines up at the tackle slot.

Correa comes in at 275 while senior Brenden Holbrook, junior Ryan Keester and Estrada are all 200-pound+ performers. And of course, you can't overlook the ringleaders, Irvine and May.

PRE-SEASON prognosticators look at the expected battle for the top spot

Harrah:

Joining Norton are three returning starters in Zeke Caldwell (6-1, 225, Sr.) Bryce Walker (6-2, 235, Sr.) and Elijah Aguilar (6-2 235, Sr.).

Blik and the Panthers are also expecting big things from newcomer Kade Jackson (6'1 185, Sr.) who is addin District 2A-2 to again be waged by the Longhorns and Millwood. And the COVID-19 cloud looms over the prep athletic field again, but OSSAA leaders and school officials go into the 2021 season with the hope and plan that the football season and all high school sports programs can go "back to normal."

So the Longhorns will not have Trick or Treat on their minds when they invade L. W. Good Stadium at Millwood on Oct. 22. Both teams may not still be undefeated but the outcome of the game will most certainly have an impact on the playoffs.

ing football to his two-year starting roles on both the Panther baseball and basketball teams. A n d coaches will find a slot for Alex Morgan (5'10 210, Sr.).

"We expect both of these young men to make an impact offensively to the offense," Blik said.

So mark the date of Sept. 3 at 7 p.m. at Evans Field in beautiful downtown Harrah so see in person the latest edition of the Harrah Panthers.
