The talent pool is deep at Del City. The Eagles have seen plenty of talented football players over the years. Most have been on the defensive side of the ball.

Coach Robert Jones wants to see them maximize that talent more on offense.

"Offensively, I really want to match the intensity and tradition that we had here on defensive since we came here with coach [Mike] Dunn," said coach Robert Jones. "I feel like we have the athletes, we have the bodies and now we need to start utilizing them."

Jones plans to use more players on both sides of the ball. To prepare for that shift, the team has improved their strength and conditioning workouts.

"This is the best shape we've been in since I've been in Del City," said Jones,
