

Three generations serve on the USS Carl Vinsor

Ron, Cameron and Richard Anderson all served on the USS Carl Vinson. PHOTO PROVIDED

A local grandfather, son and grandson have all now served on the USS Carl Vinson CVN-70.

Richard F. Anderson along with his son Ronald Anderson and grandson Cameron Anderson have all served in the U.S. Navy aboard the USS Carl Vinson CVN-70.

Command Master Chief – Richard F. Anderson – Served with Carrier Airwing (CVW-15) Deployed on the USS Carl Vinson CVN-70 from 1987-1988 – Responsible for coordinating all requirements for enlisted personal between the ship and the airwing while at sea and in port for 1400 plus personal. Retired from the United States Navy in 1988 from Carrier Airwing (CVW-15) after 33

The USS Carl Vinson was launched in 1980, undertook her maiden voyage in 1983. PHOTO PROVIDED years of service as a Master Chief (E-9).

Senior Chief – Ronald L. Anderson – Served on the USS Carl Vinson (CVN-70) – Attached to HSC - 8 Helicopter Combat Squadron (Eightballers) from 2002-2005. Responsible for coordinating Flight Deck Operations which include launch and recovery of aircraft. Assuring all Aircraft were maintained in a safe for flight status. Responsible for over 200 plus personal. Retired from the United States Navy in 2008 from HS-

10 after 26 years of Service as a Senior Chief (E-8).

AME2 – Cameron R.F. Anderson (E-5) currently deployed on the USS Carl Vinson (CVN-70). Attached to the Strike Fighter Squadron-192 F/A 18 (Super Hornets). Responsible for maintaining Ejection seats and Aircraft life support systems and launch and recovery of aircraft. Also responsible for daily Inspections insuring aircraft are safe for flight. Cameron joined the United States Navy

March 2018 – Graduating from Boot Camp in Great Lakes, IL in May of 2018. His current duty station is NAS Lemoore, Ca.

Richard F. Anderson currently resides in Midwest City is retired, and married to Kathleen Anderson.

Ronald L. Anderson currently resides in Midwest City is retired and married to Tami Anderson, Ronald is currently working as a Sergeant at the Oklahoma County Criminal Justice Authority.

Three generations of the Anderson family have served on the USS Carl Vinson CVN-70. They include Richard (Left), Ronald (Center) and Cameron (Right). PHOTOS PROVIDED