

Friends of the Library to host book sale on Feb. 27

The Bethlehem Branch Friends of the Library are hosting an outdoor drive-thru brown bag book sale on February 27 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The sale will be a $5 grab-bag type sale with no refunds, no exchanges and no peeking.

Each bag will include six hardback books varying from romance, mystery, gardening, cooking and other genres.

The event will be held at Bethlehem Branch Library on 45 Rink Dam Rd, Hickory, N.C. 28630.

The rain date for the event will be March 6.

Alex Hospice to award annual scholarship

Alexander Hospice will award a $1,000 scholarship to a deserving high school senior. Selection criteria includes: academic aptitude, future plans pursuant of a health care career, financial need, and extra-curricular activities. Applicants can be from Alexander Central High School (in person and remote learners), Alexander Early College, or Home School Students. AC students may contact your high school counselor for application and return application to your counselor. Early College and Home Schoolers feel free to stop by the Hospice office for applications and return application to us or mail to 50 Lucy Echerd Lane, Taylorsville, NC 28681. You may also access applications on our website at www.alexanderhospice.org. Deadline for applications is April 15th. For more information, please call Alexander Hospice at 828-632-5026.

Serving residents of Alexander and surrounding counties in North Carolina since 1985, Alexander Hospice specializes in easing the physical, emotional and spiritual discomforts that each patient and their family face as the end of life nears.
