Happy Huggers celebrate New Year at luncheon meeting

The Happy Huggers of Faith United Methodist Church held their January meeting. Monika Thompson blessed the meal.

Evelyn McCardell welcomed everyone. She told about the Blessing Box in the north parking lot/ Anyone is free to take what they need and be blessed. The Box was placed there by Chris Feltman and members of Scout Troop 130.

"Happy Birthday" was sung to Grace McLaughlin.

Marlene Huffer read the scripture, Psalm 100, 1-5. She told a story about a preacher in Ohio and a farmer's prayer. Sandy McCrary conducted the games, Color Word Search and New Year's Trivia.

Tables were covered in purple cloth with small bouquets of shining stars down the table top with gold dollies. Black hats were on each end of the tables. The centerpiece was a purple hat surrounded by bouquets of sparkling stars and beads on a gold dolly. Happy New Year in sparkling gold was also on the table. At each place were eyeglasses with 2021 and a noisemaker and bubbles.

Mrs. McCardell thanked Judy Fenell and Sandy McCrary for the beautiful decorations.

Door prizes were given out. Sandy McCrary gave the closing prayer, and the group sang "God Be with You."

Those attending were Monika Thompson, Bettie Ruark, Claire Bramlett, Grace McLaughlin, Butch Bergt, Patricia Roberts, Margarite Gray, Coleta Cook, Johnie Shelton, Wanza Howell, Peggy Howe, Evelyn McCardell, Marlene Huffer and Sandy McCrary.
