TRUTH IN SCRIPTURE

Haggai's Four Messages

Book of Haggai

Haggai came to the people of Judah four different times giving them a message from God. First he told them that the reason life was so hard, food and clothing was scarce and prices were so quickly rising was because they had their priorities wrong. Everyone was wrapped up in their own selfish concerns. Haggai told his audience that the good things of life are God's to give or withhold.

Second Haggai said that although Solomon's magnificent temple, which had been destroyed seventy years previous, was truly fabulous, the new temple, though not as beautiful according to some, the builders should take heart.

The new building was only a foretaste of the splendor and glory of the end time.

The third message of Haggai reminded the people that their former neglect of God had brought unpleasant consequences but from the time they began to put first things first God would bless every area of their life.

The fourth message Haggai gave was for Zerubbabel, the governor, who was a descendent of King David. Haggai said that through Zerubbabel the Messiah (Savior) would come.
