

homes, and airbnb's. His refreshing approach makes him one of the most sought-after designers in the area.

I love what I do... I encourage people to think about how they want to live... what brings them happiness and go for it. I encourage my clients to think not about what's trendy but what they love. If a client loves red, let's do red, bigger and better than ever. I often say, know who you are and what you are, and let's bring it out and celebrate it. If you love glitter, let's show it!! Do you!! Celebrate you!! My great joy is having a client say, I always wanted a home like this and never thought I could have it, and now I do.

At the end of the day, NiteLitters is there.
