

House fire results in fatality For the record

Photos submitted

A Sunday house fire on Cherry Road resulted in one fatality, Renita Turner, 65. It is suspected the fire began in the living room area of the home, with the structure quickly collapsing over the area. Summersville firefighters Andy Milby and Michael Adkins, above, were two of the many personnel on the scene. They were also assisted by Green County and Taylor County departments.

Flu shots in '21

Moreover, the flu vaccine has a cumulative effect, so each year you get the vaccine, you're building your immunity for that year and future years. And in no case can the flu shot give you the flu. It's not just you or your family at risk when Kentuckians skip their annual flu shots. It's someone's aging mother, another person's brother with cancer, your neighbor with asthma, or the front-line essential workers who show up every day to help you and your family get what you need. It's also the health care system, which is already stretched caring for a stubbornly high number of COVID patients. Raising concerns about the risks of a twindemic of flu and COVID is not a scare tactic. It's a reality check. And each of us has a very important tool we can use to reduce those risks. So, Raise Your Guard, Kentucky. Schedule your flu shot today.
