

Dragons, Lady Dragons jump back into busy schedule

Gunner Bush was one of three Dragon players in double figures against Metcalfe County last week. Bush scored 12 points but the Dragons fell 59-57 to open the season. The Dragons played Campbellsville last night in the Class A semi-finals.

Photos by Dale Curry & Angelina Alcott

After struggling from the free throw line majority of the game, Haley Judd comes in clutch for free throws hit in the final seconds of the game against the Lady Eagles. The Lady Dragons host Russell County January 16.

Jackson Johnson weaves through defenders to sneak in a lay up. The senior finished with eight points and two rebounds in their 56-45 win over Campbellsville. The Dragons faced the Eagles again last night at Campbellsville, after a big win over Bethlehem Monday evening.

Kelson McKinney gets the ball inside against Campbellsville. The Dragons won 56-45. This erased a six game losing streak to Campbellsville. Green County last defeated the Eagles December 15, 2017.

Kylie Jackson goes up for the basket against Metcalfe. Jackson had three, three-pointers. Against Campbellsville, Jackson led the team with 24 points.

Madi Corbin scores two of her 14 points against Metcalfe County as the Lady Dragons rolled to an 81-69 win last week.

Sophomore Logan Slinker connected on three 3-point shots in the JV team's win over Cumberland County last week.

Emma Howell picked up 19 points in the Lady Dragons' 81-69 win over Metcalfe County last week. She and her teammates never trailed in the away game.

Cade Kessler maneuvers around the Cumberland County defense last week. The JV team came away with an impressive 56-30 blowout win.

No articles regarding local sports were received as of press-time. We apologize for the inconvenience.

In Honor of MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. DAY

COMMUNITY TRUST BANK WILL BE CLOSED MONDAY, JANUARY 18TH

Remembering His Life
Celebrating His Legacy

Monday - Thursday: 8 a.m. - 4 pm. CT • Friday: 8 a.m. - 4:30 CT
Drive Thru only Saturday 8 a.m. - 11 a.m. CT

Greensburg
205 South Main St.
270-932-7464