What does 'love' mean to you?

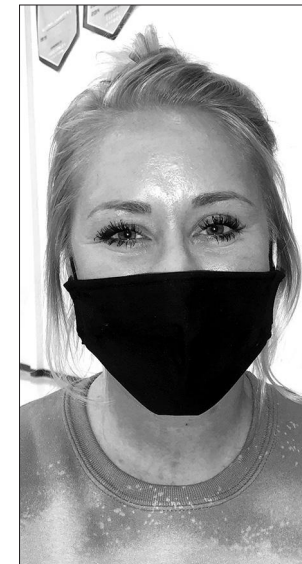

By Angelina Alcott

"Love is something that you can't go without, something that you have to have or you feel like you don't exist."
—Rich Brown

"Putting up with me after I worked night shift at the hospital."
—Julie DeSpain

"When two people click together, when you feel like someone just gets you."
—Kayla Cobb

"Unconditional."
—Mike Daniels

"Being able to keep the peace."
—Pam Pierce

"Baby don't hurt me."

Have hope

so much this past year, but loss also reminds us of our abundant blessings, so many we take for granted daily, like food, clean water, a roof over our heads, good health and dependable work.

We have gone through many life-changing events this past year. There's no "going back to normal," to the way things were. We cannot unsee our vulnerability, nor the fragility of our lives physically, emotionally, and economically. The pain of 2020 has brought many to our knees, where we can see things differently and the only place to look is upward. C.S. Lewis wrote, "God whispers to us in our pleasures, speaks in our conscience, but shouts in our pains: It is His megaphone to rouse a deaf world." The question is — are we listening?

Remember, 2 Corinthians 4:18, "So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal."

Seeking Hope in Faith and Love. Love God and All People. Amen.

Exposed to Covid-19 twice this week, I'm a little nervous, yet, still feeling, tasting and smelling fine. As a mental health care worker, the opportunity presented and the choice was made to take the first vaccine 2 weeks ago. My family is still waiting for something strange to happen — like growing another head. Yes, they said that and believe that I will experience some strange consequences because I took the horrible vaccine.

According to some sources, the first vaccine gives at least a 50% immunity to the corona virus. I am anxiously awaiting the second vaccine. While many are afraid of the vaccine and, yes, there are many unanswered questions. My decision was based on getting immunity as soon as possible wanting to do my part in ending the "virus madness".

Hopefully, 2021 is a time to rethink, regroup, reassess, and remind ourselves of what is really important in our lives, like faith, family and work. We have lost

Thanks for the highlight

To the Editor:

Thank you so much for highlighting Thrift Shop Our Place in the Record-Herald last week

We appreciate the community support for the last 23 years and look forward to many more.

The original volunteers that were mentioned are currently serving as officers: Diane Hall— president, Jerry Humphrey vice president, Cheryl Kelly— secretary, and Elva Jo Bagby— treasurer.

We appreciate these ladies and their contribution through the years.
