

Lady Dragons often utilize young players

BY ANGELINA ALCOTT
R-H SPORTS

Green Co. (64) vs. Adair Co. (35) Feb. 2

From the first basket, the Lady Dragons built a lead at home Feb. 2 the Lady Indians of Adair County were unable to match. The seniors took control early and the scoreboard reflected with a 64-35 win.

Madi Corbin led the team with 17 points, 1 rebound; Katlyn Milby a versatile player from all areas of the two point field goal scored 12, 9 rebounds; Catie Church finished with a varsity career high 9 points; Emma Howell-9 points, 9 rebounds; Haley Judd-5 points, 5 rebounds; Kate Judd-4 points, 3 rebounds; Summer Scott- 3 points, 4 rebounds; Grace Bale-2 points; Caselynn Brown- 1 point; Kennedy Jackson-1 point, 2 rebounds; Lilly Beard- 1 point; Mia Blaydes- 1 point.

Green Co. (55) vs. Taylor Co. (37) Feb. 4

A close game at home against the Lady Cards with Tallee Hudgins and Kylie Jackson both unable to play due to injury, allowed other Lady Dragons an opportunity to contribute multiple minutes to the team in their 55-37 win.

With a team free throw percentage of 78.3%, the Lady Dragons built an impressive lead in the final quarter of play.

Emma Howell led the team, 17 points and 9 rebounds; Milby-14 points, 3 rebounds; Bale-11 points, 3 rebounds; Corbin-7 points, 1 rebound; Scott- 6 rebounds; Blaydes-1 rebound; Church-4 points, 3 rebounds; Kate Judd-2 points, 3 rebounds.

Green Co. (50) vs. Central Hardin (55) Feb. 5

In a battle that transitioned to overtime, the Central Hardin Lady Bruins defeated the home team, 55-50.

Corbin scored 17 to lead the Lady Dragons. Howell-9 points, 14 rebounds; Milby-7 points, 5 rebounds; Scott-7 points, 1 rebound; Bale-7 points, 1 rebound; Judd-2 points, 4 rebounds; Church-1 point, 4 rebounds; Brown-1 rebound.

The team traveled to Campbellsville last night and will travel to Elizabethtown tomorrow.

Summer Scott scored seven points against Central Hardin. The Lady Dragons were down by 11 entering the fourth quarter but held the Bruins to just four points to force an overtime before losing in OT.

Catie Church didn't loosen her grip on a loose ball as two Lady Cards attempt to strip the ball.

Grace Bale, an eighth grader, scored 11 points for the Lady Dragons in the 55-37 win over Taylor County last week.

Emma Howell connects on a short baseline jumper for two of her nine points against Central Hardin. The Lady Dragons lost 55-50 in overtime.

Dragons move to 8-4 record

BY ANGELINA ALCOTT
R-H SPORTS

Green County Dragons ended the week with two losses and one win, all at home, for a current 8-4 season record.

Green Co. (49) vs. Adair Co. (53) Feb. 2

The first of three consecutive home games, the Dragons opened against the Indians of Adair County; after a battle, Adair got the 53-49 win.

Gunner Bush and Jackson Johnson led the team with 10 points each, Kellen Whitlow and Hayden Blakeman each with 9 points, Kelson McKinney-8 points, and Jayden Marr-3 points.

Dragons and Indians matched with 4 three-point baskets, but the Indians had multiple players in double digit scoring. Bush and Blakeman finished with 7 rebounds each, Whitlow and Johnson- 6 rebounds, and McKinney-2 rebounds.

Green Co. (60) vs. Taylor Co. (66) Feb. 4

The second game of the week ended with a loss for the Dragons. A game matched in momentum in the beginning, ended with Taylor County utilizing their bench and Dragon exhaustion of the starting five.

Big scoring numbers were posted by Dragons. Whitlow-18 points, 4 rebounds; Bush-17 points, 7 rebounds; Blakeman-12 points, 6 rebounds; McKinney-12 points, 4 rebounds; Johnson-1 point, 3 rebounds.

Green Co. (64) vs. Central Hardin (51) Feb. 5

The senior trio regrouped and finished big for their team in the final home game of the week against Central Hardin with a 64-51 win.

Bush and his signature double-double- 21 points, 10 rebounds; Whitlow-16 points, 4 rebounds; Johnson-10 points; McKinney-9 points, 3 rebounds; Blakeman-8 points, 7 rebounds; Marr-1 point.

The Dragons traveled to Campbellsville last night and will host Washington County Friday, Feb. 12.

Gunner Bush continues to lead the Dragons with more than 17 points per game but the Dragons put up their lowest offensive output of the season against Adair, losing 53-49.

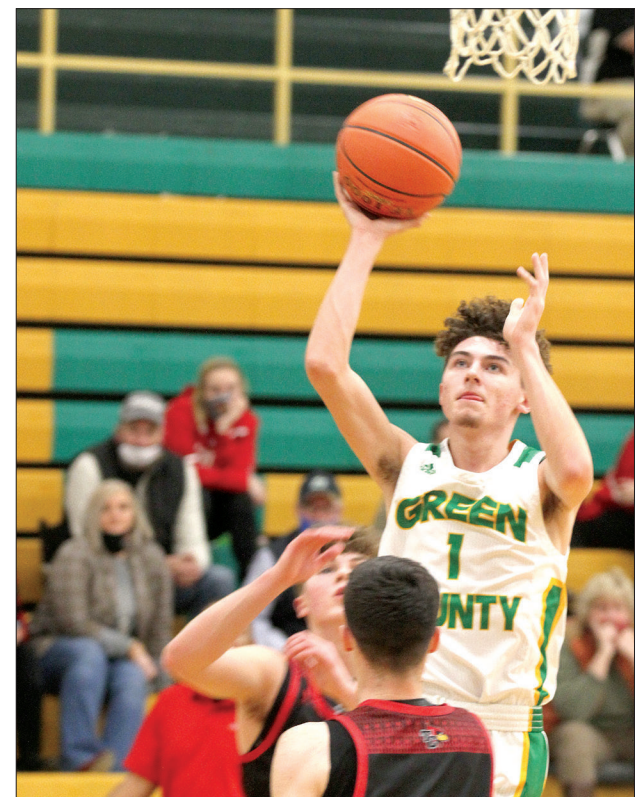

Jackson Johnson glides in for a shot attempt.

Cade Kessler moves inside with the ball against Central Hardin. The Dragons won 64-51 Friday night at home.

Jayden Marr gets the steal and heads in for a lay up at Metcalfe County during the freshman game.

Leading his team, Kellen Whitlow scores 18 points February 4.