

Whitman named second in the nation

Green County FFA's Alexandria Whitman placed second nationally last week at the National FFA Convention. This is the highest honor awarded to a local member in chapter history, advisors report.

The 93rd Annual National FFA Convention was held virtually Oct. 27-29. Over 100,000 FFA members, advisors, and supporters registered for the event which was also shown live on RFD TV.

Alexandria Whitman of Green County placed second in the Food Products and Processing Systems Division 3 of the National Agriscience Fair.

Whitman is a junior at Green County High School. She is the daughter of Jason and Melissa Whitman.

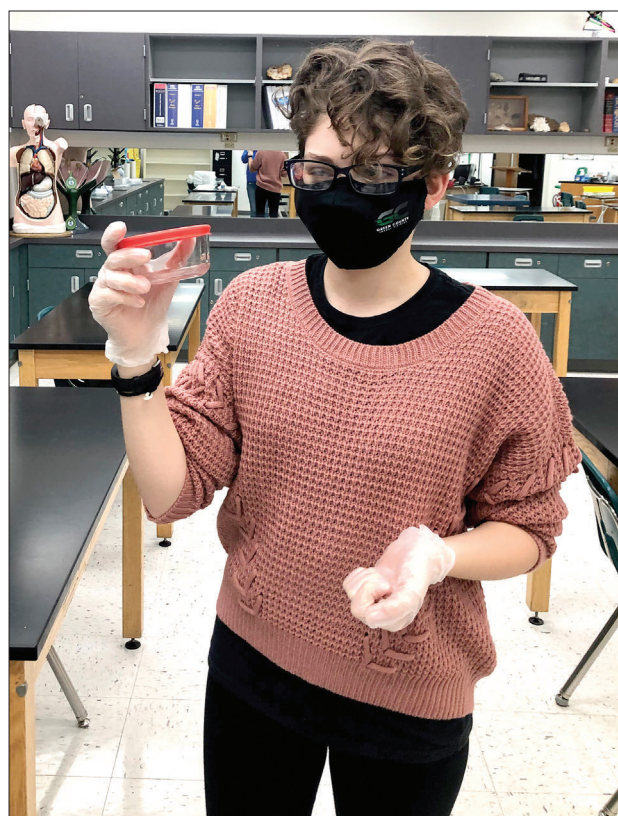

The American FFA Degree was awarded to 95 Kentucky FFA members.

This honor is the highest award the organization can bestow on a member.

Twelve Kentucky FFA chapters were recognized in the National Chapter Contest. Bourbon County, LaRue County, Locust Trace, Madisonville North Hopkins, Royal Spring Middle School, Spencer County, Taylor County, Western Hills, and Williamstown were recognized as National Three Star Chapters. Madison Southern, Scott County, and Seneca were recognized as National Two Star Chapters.

Alexandria Whitman awaits results of the National FFA Agriscience Fair which was televised live. She placed second in the Food Products and Processing Division III.
