Share one piece of advice for the GCHS Lady Dragons as they head to the Region Tournament:

By Angelina Alcott

"Get out there, have fun, and hit your free throws."
—Erik Edwards

"No matter what keep your head up, stay focused, and give it your all!"
—Missy Coffee

"Play hard and lay it all out on the floor. Don't have any regrets. Play your game."
—Becca Bush

"Stay focused, have fun and give it your all."
—Brandi Atwood

"Know your goal and don't stop working on the court until it is achieved."
—Rebecca Christie

"Stay focused, be well rested, play as a team, but to enjoy the moment! Go Lady Dragons!"
—Susan Squires

Power of a Mother's Prayer

Dr. Angelia Bryant

Clinical Counselor

My Mother's Prayer is why I'm here today. While I was still young and, well, you know, my Mother prayed. She prayed relentlessly. Intuitively, she knew when I was in trouble. She would call me in my struggles – even when I tried to hide it, still she knew.

My Mother, Carolyn Elizabeth Shaw Schureman, is the reason I survived. She never gave up on me even when I had given up on myself. She knew who I was long before I did. I am eternally thankful. She instilled in me the Power of Prayer.

She took me and my brothers to church as the cliché goes – every time the doors opened. She sent me to Girl's Auxiliary on Wednesday nights. In that group, I progressed through the steps, my steps included: Maiden, Lady-in-Waiting, Princess, and Queen. There were more steps although I had to stop at Queen. Being a Queen meant memorizing an unbelievable amount of scripture. While a daunting task at the time, again, I am eternally grateful because I can still quote scripture to this day. Because of my Mother, scripture is in my heart, spirit and soul.

My Mother's prayers shaped me in more ways than I will ever know. Fast forward, I pray for my family more than they will ever know. Especially when I know they are struggling and even when they try to hide like I did from my Mother. Mother's know.

What prayer do you remember most from your Mother? How did your Mother's prayer impact your life? What is your prayer for your family?

I Pray - Lord, thank you for praying Mothers and their example of faith, love and hope. Bless them today and every day.

Remember these verses, Matthew 7:7, "Ask, and it will be given to you seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." Matthew 21:22, "And whatever you ask in prayer, you will receive, if you have faith." Mark 9:29, And he said to them, "This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer."

Praying Anew in 2021 in Faith and Love. Love God and All People. Amen.

Seeking Hope in Faith and Love. Love God and All People. Amen.
