

Green County Board of Education Chair Marcy Goff reviews plans for the future Green County High School.

After special recognitions the meeting flowed into the regular orders of business. While approving the previous month's receipts and bills, Director of Finance Zachary Leftwich acknowledged that the district had made the final payment on the debt service for what is now known as the Green County Primary School. The building, originally known as the Greensburg Elementary School, cost approximately $6.5 million when construction began in 2001. Construction finished in late 2002.

Gary Scott and Craig Assey with G. Scott & Associates attended Thursday's board meeting to provide an update on the high school project. The board approved the proposed design and related construction documents. The design will now be sent to the Kentucky Department of Education for approval. The new building will wrap around the current high school gym and will include the addition of new classrooms, administrative offices, cafeteria and kitchen, band room, and a dedicated auditorium. The old classrooms will be demolished while the rest of the existing high school, including the gym, will be renovated for the new building.

In other items of business, the board approved routine annual items related to the 2021-2022 academic year including: Site-Based Decision Making allocations, Emergency Substitutes, and Non-Traditional Instructional Program continuation.

"I was in third grade and among the first group of students to attend when we moved from the 'old' elementary school into the new 'Greensburg Elementary School.' Some twenty years later, I was able to sign the check to pay it off!"

Green County Schools

The board also approved the audit agreement for the 2020-2021 district financial audit. The board accepted bids for some surplus property and also approved to advertise for new bids on miscellaneous surplus property and to advertise for proposals to purchase tires and batteries for the 2021-2022 fiscal year. The board also approved an out-of-state trip request submitted by Green County High School. The next regular meeting of the Green County Board of Education is scheduled for May 13.

Lady Dragons fall in All A Classic

Catcher Haley Judd makes the throw to third against Bethlehem. Green County lost to the Ban-shees 4-2 in the All A Classic 5th Region tourney.

Katlyn Milby connects on this pitch against Bethlehem. The Dragons lost 4-2 in the first game of the All A Classic at American Legion Park.

Madi Corbin applies the tag at third base against Bethlehem. Neither team could get their offense going as they played three scoreless innings to begin the game.

Campbellsville University has announced in-person commencement activities will resume with individual school ceremonies.

Between April 25 and May 1, the seven schools that make up CU will be holding their own commencement ceremonies. In light of the COVID-19 pandemic, the number of guests per graduate will be limited.

These ceremonies are mini versions of what alumni have participated in in the past and will all take place in Ransdell Chapel.

The mini ceremonies will be live streamed on social media tentatively May 1.
