

Ace Hardware will carry a full line of grills and griddles, along with a multitude of other items such as Yeti, STIHL, Simply Southern, Vera Bradley and more.

Employees reworked the wall of paint Monday afternoon. The wall, filled with the high end Benjamin Moore paint, is visually pleasing upon entrance.

Additionally, the store is going to offer a wide variation of Hallmark items, as well as Kentucky Branded, Vera Bradley and Simply Southern merchandise, all of which will likely come in handy when the new hospital directly across the road is complete.

The store manager says the community has been great so far and she thinks the staff will go great.

“For our STIHL products, we actually have Eddie Paxton to take care of those products in the store,” she said. Paxton is known for his career with M & P Implement, a STIHL sales and service dealer.

tomers name for easy reference in the future.

“I’m an advocate for saving everybody, every time,” the manger said.

To that effect, acehardware.com will be a big bonus to shoppers. Purchases may be made online through the website and picked up in the store. However, the manager said she will be happy to place orders for customers to save on the legwork.

“I would prefer customers come in and let me do the online ordering for them, that way, if there’s a problem, I’m the one that goes to bat for them and they don’t have to worry about it.”

where everything is in the store,” Blackstone said. “My goal is to be visible to them 99% of the time.”

She looks forward to welcoming the community to this new business venture.

“In talking to my team through the interviewing process, I heard a repeated comment, ‘nothing ever stays in Greensburg,’” the store manger said. “Well, we wanna prove that to be wrong. I believe in real customer service with a friendly attitude and, I not only want us to take care of this area’s hardware needs, but to truly become part of this community.”

Key-making is another service offered. The store will offer replicates of chip keys, specialty keys and will carry most key fobs, without requiring a trip to a dealership to program.

When first entering the store, an entire wall is dedicated to paint.

“We carry Benjamin Moore high-end paint,” Blackstone said. “There are three lines, the Aura, Regal, and the Ben.”

Ace will also offer their brand of paint, Royal, along with Clark+Kensington.

All paint accessories and necessities will be available for purchase.

A highlight, the store will have a paint memory system within their computer. For each purchase, the system will tag the paint color and formula under the cus-

Ace will offer charge accounts to local businesses to make purchases easier, including those that are tax exempt.

If all stays on schedule, the store will open to the public Tuesday, April 27. There will be many sales and grand prize drawings upon opening.

A soft opening for community members/businesses wishing to set up accounts will be held April 26.

Currently, the store is still accepting employment applications, but all positions are filled at this time.

The manager advised to follow their Facebook page for special giveaways, Greensburg Ace Hardware Marketplace.
