Lula Mae Keaton To Celebrate 104th Birthday

A one hundred and four years of life celebration will be held on June 12, 2021 at Croskey Park in Santos Florida. Saluting the life of Madame, Lula Mae Keaton a "Queen" in her own right.

This little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine. It has really shone brightly for 104 years, the world has not seen all that her eyes have seen, many people will never experience the things that she has gone through. Her light is still shining bright after 104 years. She has seen storms and destruction, and famine and overflow, Witnessed death and destruction and seen birth and resurrection. Her light is still shining bright. When you see her you do not feel her pain or see her despair, you see bright sparkling eyes, and you hear distinct understandable words, and you are simply amazed that she remembers your name.

Lula Mae Keaton, of Ocklawaha, Florida has more insight than the average person. She is truly phenomenal. Born June 15, 1917, she has defied the odds. She has defied the very nature of concern, for during her lifetime she has lived to birth children, Robert, Judy, Anniebelle, Diane (her caretaker) and Hordges, deceased. She has bury loved ones, experience heartache, and experience joy. She is yet holding on. She is a miracle of life to have lived past one hundred and more.

She is the only sibling of 10 living.

We salute you Ms. Keaton. God bless you and keep on keeping on.

This smash-hit musical is inspired by the true story of the iconic recording session that brought together Elvis Presley (Jonathan Williams), Johnny Cash (James R. Taylor III), Jerry Lee Lewis (Philip King), and Carl Perkins (Scott Nadenik). On the afternoon of December 4, 1956, these four young musicians gathered at Sun Records in Memphis for an impromptu jam session, the first and only time they would record together. Legendary music producer Sam Phillips (Trafton Crandall) oversaw the historic meeting, and Elvis brought along his girlfriend Dyanne (Julia Pagh).
