Rotarians Collect Supplies For Two Local Schools

Rotarians met at Staples this Monday morning to thank them for helping with promotion of their annual school supply drive for Harbour View Elementary and Stanton-Wiersdale Elementary. Rotary set up a school bus display to collect school supplies in front of the Staples Store. Staples has pre-boxed 19 items for student supplies for a $5 cost. Tim Livesey, assistant manager, shared “Our customers are already sponsoring boxes and our staff are excited that this so well received.” The first delivery was made today for the start of summer school at Harbour View. “These are great for the students because this box has the basic items each student needs,” stated Assistant Principal Mitzi Smith. Staples customers have also sponsored gallon jugs of hand sanitizer for $10. “We are grateful Rotary made the connection with Staples. Every teacher is eager to have one of the sanitizer jugs in their classrooms. This has been an important item because of Covid 19,” added Jennifer Pollard, Assistant Principal. Staples loaded the truck twice this week for Rotarian Sue Bodenner to deliver sanitizer, personal kleenex packs and the supply boxes with retail value over $2500 to these two schools. “For us it was a great win to connect to the school through Rotary. We want to be part of the community solving a need that is in our expertise,” stated manager

Eric Miller. And all the Rotarians stepped up with $5-$20 and sponsored boxes too!
