Summerfield Baptist Presents Destination Dig

Beginning June 13 - 18, Summerfield Baptist Church will be presented Destination Dig Vacation Bible School from 6 to 8 p.m. each night.

At Destination Dig, kids will unearth more than just dirt. They will discover real life archaeological finds that have helped to uncover the truth about Jesus.

Stories from the Bible will leap off the pages as kids explore where Jesus walked and examine artifacts that bring the world of the Bible to life. As junior archaeologists, kids will study tangible pieces of the past to learn the truth about who Jesus is and why He came.

Summerfield Baptist Church is located at 14500 SE 65 Court (behind the Summerfield Post office), Summerfield.

For more information please call 245-2369 or email: churchoffice@fbcssummerfield.org.

CAPTAIN STACEY WILLIAM YOPP, USN (Ret.)

Captain Stacey William Yopp, USN (Ret.) of Valrico, FL, died on Monday, 17 May 2021 at home. Stacey was 49. He was born on 29 January 1972 in Leesburg, FL. He graduated from Lake Weir High School in 1990, The United States Naval Academy in 1994 receiving a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics, Naval Postgraduate School in 2001 receiving a Master of Science in Applied Mathematics, and Air Command and Staff College, Air University in 2006 receiving a Master of Military Operational Art and Science.

In 1997 he married Cecilia Jones, and together they had 3 children, William Brandon (who preceded him in death), M. Catherine and Chaney Jaiyel.

Stacey completed his Division Officer tours aboard USS OLENDORF (DD 972) in San Diego, CA where he was the Fire Control Officer, Auxiliaries Officer and the ship's Maintenance and Material Officer; and aboard USS YORKTOWN (CG 48) in Pascagoula, MS where he was the Navigator and CIC Officer. His Department Head tours were aboard USS JOHN S MCCAIN (DDG 56) in Yokosuka, Japan, and USS LAKE CHAMPLAIN (CG 57) in San Diego, CA where he was the Engineer Officer on both ships. He served as Executive Officer aboard USS CURTS (FFG 38) in San Diego, CA, and USS ROSS (DDG 71) in Norfolk, VA. He also served as the Commanding Officer of the USS ROSS (DDG 71). Ashore, he was assigned to the staff of the Commander, US THIRD Fleet assigned to the N5 Directorate (San Diego, CA); Commander, US FIFTH Fleet (Kingdom of Bahrain) as the Current Operations Director; Director of Current Operations, US SIXTH Fleet (Naples, Italy); and Director, Strike Group Training, Undersea Warfighting Development Center (San Diego, CA). His professional awards include the Meritorious Service Medal (four awards), Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal (two awards), Global War on Terrorism Service Medal (one award), Navy Achievement Medal (two awards), and various unit citations and campaign awards. Stacey and that infectious laugh will be greatly missed.

Stacey is survived by his wife and daughters, his mother, Lila, his siblings Annie, Barbara, Alexander, Janet (Felix), Gregory (Donna), Lorraine and a grand host of nieces, nephews, family and friends. He was predeceased by his father, Lamar and his sister, Lillie.
