

Valedictorian and Salutatorians announced at HCCHS

Holmes County Central High School is pleased to announce the Valedictorian and Co-Salutatorians for the Class of 2021. Zamiah Brownlow has been named as valedictorian and Kaitlin Monae' Kimbrough and Davian Powell have been named as Co-Salutatorians. All are exemplary students and citizens and have also been involved in numerous community activities, athletics, and other programs at Holmes County Central High School.

Zamiah Brownlow is the Valedictorian of the Holmes County Central High School class of 2021, who maintains a 4.1636 GPA. Zamiah is the proud daughter of Mr. Bernardo and Rosie Brownlow. She is the granddaughter of Eloise Sanders and Johnnie Fort, and great granddaughter of the late Annie Skinner. Zamiah is also the youngest of seven siblings. Throughout her high school career, Zamiah has shown her academic and leadership skills in a variety of ways. These skills have been shown through affiliations such as: National Honor Society, Beta Club, Leadership for Life, and Jobs for Mississippi Graduates. She has continued to show her academic success being the recipient of numerous awards which include but are not limited to the following: Honor Roll Awards, the Migration Heritage Scholarship, Lyric's Legend Scholarship, and the highest average scholarship, presented by Men vs. Men Mentoring Inc. Zamiah has chosen to spend the next four years at Mississippi College in Clinton, majoring in nursing to pursue her dream of becoming a Nurse Practitioner. Zamiah hopes to continue to lead by example as she lives by Proverbs 16:3, "Commit to the Lord whatever you do and your plans will succeed."

Kaitlin Monae' Kimbrough is the proud daughter of Ms. Rosha Horton from Goodman, MS. During her high school career, Kaitlin actively participated in many school organizations, including, Beta Club, National Honor Society, Superintendent's Round Table, robotics team, and varsity cheerleader. She also excels academically in her honors and advanced placement classes, while taking advantage of the dual credit college program.

One of her greatest achievements was to be selected by the student body to serve as Miss Holmes County Central High School for the 2020-2021 school year. Additionally, she's an active member of Walden Chapel United Methodist Church where she serves as president of the Youth Ministry. She volunteers in various capacities at school, church, and her community.

After graduation, Kaitlin plans to attend Hinds Community College in Raymond, MS, pursuing a degree in Pre-Nursing. She will continue her education at the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg, MS to earn her Bachelor's of Nursing degree in pursuit of her career as a Nurse Anesthetist.

Kaitlin's determination and hard work, along with the love and support of family and her village have set her on the path to a bright future. She knows, with God, nothing is impossible.

Davian Powell is one of the Salutatorians of the class of 2021. He is the proud son of David and Stephanie Powell of Lexington, MS. He lives in the Lexington/Acona community and is a member of the Historical Sweet Canon Church of God in Christ. He is a shining star and has proven himself in his educational pursuits and beyond at Holmes County Central High School. He holds a 4.0333 GPA.

The Scholar is actively involved in Senior Beta Club, Leadership for Life, Holmes County 4-H, Pathway Program, and the National Honor Society. Davian has chosen to spend his next four years of life in Lorman, MS at Alcorn State University pursuing a degree in Agriculture Animal Science with a minor in Robotics and Drones. He has won numerous academic scholarships including Mississippi Cattlemen Association, USDA Summer Camp, Delta District Show Scholarship, Payton Netherland Memorial Scholarship, Sale of Junior Champions, Mississippi Association of Supervisors, and the Alcorn State University SAAS Scholarship.

After college, Davian plans to work with the USDA as a Land Server, own his own cow/calf operation farm, and drone operation. Davian's favorite scripture and what he lives by is Jeremiah 29:11, "For I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord. They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and hope."

Holmes County Central High School will hold its 2021 commencement ceremony on Friday, June 4 at 9 a.m. at Holmes Community College, Frank Branch Coliseum.

Cities hold elections on Tuesday, June 8

The cities of Lexington, Cruger, Goodman, Pickens and West are holding elections for local candidates on Tuesday, June 8. All the candidates in the June 8 elections are running as Independents. Each city is holding its election for Mayor and Aldermen.

The cities of Tchula and Durant held their primaries in April. The results of both contests were decisive; as a result, they do not need to participate in the June 8 general election.

CORRECTION:

The REAL Christian Foundation/ Lexington Colt Scholarship went to Quandarian Winters and Charity Smith.

The Coach Willie Reeves Memorial Scholarship went to Jeremiah Williams and Daekwon Stewart.
