Slightly Tarnished performing April 16 at Milepost 89

Special to The Clinton Courier

Friday Nights at Milepost 89 REVISITED is the third Friday of the month at 7 p.m. outside on the lawn of the Clinton Visitor Center. Admission to each performance is at least "89" cents. Clintonians are encouraged to bring their lawn chairs and enjoy a great evening of music under the stars.

Join together five people with over two hundred years of experience playing music and you get Slightly Tarnished, a very unique band in Central Mississippi performing on Friday, April 16. Everyone in the band started playing music back in the sixties and love it today more than ever. They play a mix of Americana, folk, folk rock, traditional country and some Southern gospel.

The band members are Robert Ferren, guitar and vocals; Debra (Nan) Hydrick, vocals; Marijane Whitfield, keyboard and vocals; Ed Tucker, guitar and vocals; and Phillip Till, guitar, banjo and vocals. The band believes it is important to carry on American music history. Organizers say it will be a fun evening that is not to be missed.

Weather permitting, the music will be performed in an outdoor setting at the Visitor Center. The outdoor event will follow the CDC and the State Health Department COVID-19 outdoor event regulations and guidelines. Attendees are asked to you wear face masks and adapt to social distancing measures.

The Visitor Center is located at 1300 Pinehaven Road. For more music details, call 601-924-2221.

OBITUARY

Mary Hester Treloar

Mary Hester Treloar was born March 25, 1926, in Attala County, Mississippi, and died March 23, 2021, at her home in Clinton, Mississippi. She was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother.

She was a member of Mount Salus Presbyterian Church and later First Baptist of Clinton.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Joe Harrison Treloar; her son, Joe Treloar, Jr.; and her parents, Cliff and Gladys Hester.

She is survived by her daughter, Jane Hurt (Al) of Clinton, Mississippi; and son, John Treloar (Debra) of Phoenix, Arizona. She also leaves behind five grandchildren: Amanda Lollar, Jim Hurt, Joel Hurt, Taylor Treloar, and Trey Treloar; a brother, Dr. Cliff Hester; and numerous nieces and nephews.

There was a private family graveside service on March 26, 2021, at the Clinton Cemetery. Wright and Ferguson Funeral Home handled the arrangements.

Memorials may be made to the Writing Ministry at First Baptist Church of Clinton or First Presbyterian Day School, 1390 North State Street, Jackson, MS 39202.
