The Clinton Study Club hosted its September meeting on the poolside veranda of hostess Christina Burns, with Barbara Barnett serving as co-hostess.

President Paula Wimbish welcomed everyone and called the meeting to order. She thanked Barbara Parks for the production of the club's yearbook and Lynda Williams for providing the unique sketches in the book.

Program Chair Mary Ann Greene announced that "Foodways of the South" would be the theme for this year's programs. She presented an introduction to the concept of foodways and an overview of foodways in Mississippi. Programs slated will enlighten members concerning southern cookbooks and barbeque, as well as the influences of New Orleans/Creole and African foodways.

Other members attending were Jenta Boone, Kathy Cannon, Peggy Cudd, Emily Fokeladeh, Judy Gearhart, Lou Ann Lee, Doris Lepard, Dixie Lloyd, Robin McCormick, Susan Meadors, Judi Reynolds and Mary Simpson.

Clinton's Dunaway chosen for Hinds CC award

Special to The Clinton Courier

Hinds Community College has named Alumni homecoming honorees for 2021, and Clintonian Bob Allan Dunaway is the Alumni Service Award winner for 2021. Dunaway chaired the Art Department at Hinds from 1971 until retiring in 1993. His artwork has graced the halls of museums, homes and offices locally and worldwide. For more than thirty years, he has created trophies for the college's annual Heritage Fishing Rodeo.

Homecoming activities at Hinds begin 10 a.m. on October 19 at Fountain Hall on the Raymond Campus with the fifty-plus alumni reunion honoring the classes of 1970 and 1971 and all prior high school and college classes. On October 21, this year's honorees and Sports Hall of Fame inductees will be recognized during a program in Cain-Cochran Hall on the Raymond Campus starting at 5 p.m.

The homecoming game versus East Central Community College is at 7 p.m. The Alumni honorees will be recognized at halftime, and the Eagle band and Hi-Steppers will perform, along with the Alumni Hi-Steppers.

The Homecoming Court will also be presented at halftime, and the Homecoming queen will be announced.

All ticket sales for the game will be online through the athletic website: <https://sports.hindscc.edu/>
