10 RHS Seniors Will Receive Diplomas...

These young people will need to face the world with resilience and a willingness to see things in a new and different light.
"This was a small class in numbers, but large in achievements," stated Superintendent Wade Johnson. "I see big things for them in the future. This is a class of gifted artists, athletes, and scholars who will be missed by their teachers, coaches, other staff members, and by me," Johnson continued.
The graduating seniors from Rothsay are featured in the May 24 issue of the Rothsay Regional Report. It lists all of the seniors, and their parents, along with their photographs, their future plans and a list of activities during their high school years in Rothsay.
A journey that took students 13 years to accomplish will all be over in a short time. Those 13 years saw the dependent, scared five-year olds mature into confident young adults with their entire life ahead of them.

For most it will be a relatively happy life. For others it will be a bumpy road. For all there are unforeseen life changing situations ahead.
These 10 seniors will soon learn that the only thing consistent in life is change. These 10 individuals who saw each other every day and spent every school hour together for the past 13 years as classmates, will never again all assemble at the same time and place. In that respect they are the same as all of the Rothsay High School Classes who have gone on before them.
This class will have many memories and stories to share of the last two years of their high school education. They have faced sudden change and disappointment but able to have some normalcy in their senior year.
The last months have prepared these young people to face the real world more realistically. Because in adult life they will experience sudden change, disappointments and times of great happiness. That's life!
Hopefully the members of Rothsay's 2021 graduating class have come through the last couple of years with the ability to accept what life throws at them, embrace it and live richer fuller lives because of living through unprecedented times and experiences.
The RHS 2021 Graduating Class is wished the very best as they chase their dreams and head into the future.
