A heart-warming hurrah!

SCES's performance of Frozen, JR. was definitely worth melting for!

Seminole County Elementary School's production of Frozen, JR. melted hearts by the hundreds at four packed-house sold out performances last weekend. To say it was a magical hit, and one Disney himself would be proud to attach his name to, would be a Norwegian-sized understatement.

The results of months of practicing, designing, preparing, constructing, sewing, painting and fabricating by Seminole County Elementary students, parents, school staff members and countless talented volunteers were on full display this past weekend during the school's annual musical extravaganza.

The SCES auditorium and stage were magically and most impressively transformed into the mythical Norwegian Kingdom of Arendelle, and its residents' singing and acting were nothing short of Academy Award level of entertainment.

Show director and all round miracle worker Tony Buczek commented, "There were many magical moments in the performances of Frozen, JR, but here are a few that will be foremost in my memory. After each performance, tiny little Elsas and Annas were waiting to meet the 'real' Elsas and Annas, and my
