... NOTICE ...

Applications are being accepted in the Seminole County Sheriff's Office / E-911 Center for the positions of a full-time and a part-time Communications Officer. Applications may be picked up at the Sheriff's Office or downloaded from our website. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.

The Sheriff's Office / E-911 Center operates on a 24-per hour per day basis. Weekend, holiday, and overtime work will be required.

The Communications Officer performs specialized duties involving answering 9-1-1 and administrative emergency and non-emergency phone calls and dispatching law enforcement, firefighters and/or emergency medical personnel as needed. The position requires the employee to operate two-way radios, telephones, and multiple computers daily. Phone work includes handling complaints and service requests and providing accurate and immediate transmittal of information that frequently involves emergency welfare and safety.

The Communications Officer assists in maintaining security of the facility by monitoring cameras and operating the control panel door locking system. The Communications Officer also greets the public, and receipts payments for bonds and fees, and performs other duties as assigned.

Applicants shall be a high school graduate or equivalent. While no specific communications or emergency service is required, applicant shall have some general work experience of a responsible nature. Applicant must have computer and typing experience. Employee must be able to obtain Communications Officer Certification through Georgia Peace Officer Standards and Training Council, and also Network Operator Certification through Georgia Crime Information Center. Additional training and certifications may be required. Applicant must not have a felony conviction. The part-time must already be certified.

A complete job description is available for review at the Sheriff's Office or on our website at www.seminoleso.com.
