Roger Spooner celebrates 99 years of living life well - all day long

99-year-old Navy veteran, war veteran and trucking veteran Roger Spooner of Iron City is one of those individuals who has seen and experienced so much in his lifetime – way more than most of us can even fathom. He is a living piece of history, full of information, stories and, by definition, a time capsule.

He always has a kind word for everyone he meets, and never, ever meets a stranger. Because of how admired and loved he is in this community it was no surprise on Thursday, November 18th, his 99th birthday, that a large number of friends and family members made an effort to shake his hand, hug his neck, and wish him a very happy birthday.

Mr. Roger's special day of celebrations began just after sunrise on Thursday, November 18 with the staff of Three Squares Diner hosting a breakfast birthday bash where a friend surprised Mr. Roger with an edible replica of his semi-truck as a birthday cake.

At lunch "Miss" Jo hosted a friends and family celebration with festive decorations and a cake at Jo's Family Restaurant, and that evening his family a hosted big celebration at Chris and Kaye Thomas' bunk house.

Mr. Roger was smiling from ear to ear from day break to night fall, and based on countless comments, thoroughly enjoyed his 99th birthday celebration. He and his family sincerely thank each and everyone in the community for the birthday wishes and for making his birthday a very special time.

Mr. Roger is pictured above at a birthday lunch at Jo's Family Restaurant, and below with Bobby Williams, Jackie Daniels, and Angela Duncan at Three Squares Diner
