Obituaries

James Andrew 'Jim' McGee

Mr. James Andrew "Jim" McGee, of Lincolnton, passed away on November 9, 2020.

A memorial graveside service will be held on Sunday, April 25, 2021 at 2pm at Greenwood Baptist Church Cemetery.

Mr. McGee, son of the late Horace Holden and Mabel Maise McGee was born in Monroe, Louisiana on September 2, 1930. During his childhood, his family lived all over the USA. His father, along with his grandfather, uncles and cousins were all pipeline workers and followed the construction wherever it carried them. He graduated from Chamblee High School and signed up for the Marine Reserves, but he was too young to serve. He married the former Rachel Virginia Treadwell, the mother of his children, Jimmy McGee and Debbie McLeod. Shortly thereafter, he followed his father and other family members and worked the pipeline throughout America and Alberta, Canada. Then, he started JA McGee Construction in Atlanta. During that time, he coached Pop Warner football and Little League baseball teams in Chamblee.

After retirement, his love for agriculture brought him back to Lincoln and Wilkes counties where he owned and operated a dairy farm and raised horses. He also worked in real estate with his wife Nellie Goldman McGee for many years, was a member of the North Georgia Roping Club, and Jones Chapel Church.

He is survived by his son, Jimmy McGee, daughter, Debbie McLeod and husband Greg grandsons, Matt McGee, Morgan McLeod and wife Adrienne, Wesley McGee, Tyler McGee and wife Brooke, granddaughters, Julie McGee, Corey McLeod Bridges and husband Steven and six great grandchildren.

"The best way to deal with death is to ride on from it."

"It's been quite a party, ain't it!"

Beggs Funeral Home, Lincolnton is honored to serve the family of Mr. James A. "Jim" McGee.

Good Citizens Essay winners recognized by DAR April 10

The Kettle Creek Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met Saturday, April 10, at the Washington Woman's Club to honor the Good Citizens Essay winners, Kaci Gammon from Washington-Wilkes Comprehensive High School, Rachel Jordan from Lincoln County High School, and Samuel Ash from Oglethorpe County High School.

This year's essay topic was "Our American Heritage and Our Responsibility for Preserving It." The focus question was "How do the combined actions of so many good citizens keep our nation moving forward?"

The DAR sponsors the Good Citizen Essay Contest every year and encourages participation from nearby high schools. One of the main goals of DAR is to encourage our youngest citizens in their responsibilities and privileges of being U.S. citizens. It was with extreme pride that Kettle Creek DAR had the opportunity to honor these outstanding high school seniors.

Peggy Jones, regent, presided over the meeting. Chaplain Fran Thaxton led the invocation and the opening ritual and gave the blessing for the delicious lunch.

Laura Toburen, DAR Good Citizen committee chairman, introduced the high school students and their parents. She presented the essay participants with certificates and pins along with scholarship checks from the chapter. Linda Chesnut presented the essay winners with pen and ink prints depicting a scene from the Battle of Kettle Creek. Participants told the chapter about their future plans as well as their extracurricular activities in high school, their service to the schools and community and their opportunities for leadership during their high school years.

The DAR Good Citizen Award and Scholarship Contest, created in 1934, is intended to encourage and reward the qualities of good citizenship. This award recognizes and rewards individuals who possess the qualities of dependability, service, leadership and patriotism in their homes, schools, and communities. These students are selected by their teachers and administrators because they demonstrate these qualities to an outstanding degree. All three student winners were incredible examples of the Good Citizens Awards requirements. Locally, the Kettle Creek Chapter of DAR presents scholarships in the amount of $100 to the participants.

Members present were Nina Albea, Amanda Aycock, Cathy Armour, Ginny Broome, Linda Chesnut, Carol Harris, Peggy Jones, Ann Pinson, Phyllis Scarborough, Nancy Sisson, Fran Thaxton, Laura Toburen, and Lynda Woodard.

Guests included were Samuel Ash and his parents, Charles and Andrea Ash, Kaci Gammon and her parents, Craig and Sandra Gammon, Rachel Jordan and her mother, Stephanie Jordan; also Mellissa McGarity, counselor at Oglethorpe High, Garvin Aycock, Thad Broome, and David Chesnut.
