

LCMS athletes recognized at awards ceremony April 15

Lincoln County Middle School baseball players recognized at the athletic awards ceremony were (l-r) William McWhorter IV - sportsmanship award, Bryar Rhoden - most valuable player, Russell Gibson - best fielder, Alton Deal - best hitter, Brayden Crook - most improved, and Dennis Parks III - captain's award.

Lincoln County Middle School boys basketball players recognized at the athletic awards ceremony were (l-r), Christian Crite - best defensive player, Jessiah Zellars - sportsmanship, Mekhi Wade - most valuable player, Brayden Crook - most improved, Christian Elam - captain's award. Not pictured Jonathan Norman - coach's award.

Lincoln County Middle School softball players recognized at the athletic awards ceremony were (l-r) Katy Glenn Chapman - sportsmanship award, Allie Drake Robertson - most valuable player, Kylah Turner - best fielder, Kadence Elam - most improved, and Jordin Hilton - captain's award. Not pictured Hannah Adcock - best hitter.

Lincoln County Middle School girls basketball players recognized at the athletic awards ceremony were (l-r), Cayden Glaze - best defensive player, Shernorah Bussey - sportsmanship award, Khydra' Green - most improved, and India Wright - captain's award. Not pictured Janiah Norman - coach's award and Syriah Hogan - most valuable player.

Lincoln County Middle School cowboy cheerleaders recognized at the athletic awards ceremony were (l-r) Annaliese Pearson - most dedicated, Justice Norman - best all-around, Emma Grace Clatt - most valuable and captain's award, Kaitlyn Jenkins - most cooperative, Ava Giovengo - most dependable, and Justice Norman - co-captain award.

Lincoln County Middle School boys soccer players recognized at the athletic awards ceremony were (l-r), Joseph Partridge - sportsmanship award, Fortson Partridge - most valuable player, Roman Davis - best defensive player, Seth Brahier - best offensive player award, Davin Turman - most improved, and Nathaniel Delancey - captain's award.

Lincoln County Middle School Raider cheerleaders recognized at the athletic awards ceremony were (l-r), Jamie Adams - most dedicated, Jordan Harvey - best all-around and co-captain award, Madison Collier - most valuable and captain's award, Brookelyn Harris - most cooperative, Kalynn Barger - co-captain award, and Jakayla Calhoun - co-captain award. Not pictured Syriah Hogan - most dependable.

Lincoln County Middle School girls soccer players recognized at the athletic awards ceremony were (l-r), Khydra' Green - sportsmanship award, Annaliese Pearson - most valuable player, Ava Layton - best offensive player, Kaitlyn Jenkins - most improved, Ali Cox - captain's award. Not pictured Lillie Dawkins - best defensive player.

Lincoln County Middle School cowboy football players recognized at the athletic awards ceremony were (l-r), Christian Crite - most valuable player, Brayden Crook - sportsmanship award, Davind Hunt Jr. - coach's award, Justin Simmons - best offensive player, Spencer Stewart - best defensive player, and Mekhi Wade - captain's award.

One solution for oxygen at home, away, and for travel
 Introducing the INOGEN ONE
 It's oxygen therapy on your terms

No more tanks to refill. No more deliveries. No more hassles with travel. The INOGEN ONE portable oxygen concentrator is designed to provide unparalleled freedom for oxygen therapy users. It's small, lightweight, clinically proven for stationary and portable use, during the day and at night, and can go virtually anywhere — even on most airlines. Inogen accepts Medicare and many private insurances!

Reclaim Your Freedom And Independence NOW!

inogen

Call Inogen Today To Request Your FREE Info Kit

1-855-769-6057

© 2020 Inogen, Inc. All rights reserved. MKT-P0108

Lincoln County Middle School tennis player recognized at the athletic awards ceremony was Brookelyn Seagraves - most improved.

Lincoln County Middle School Raiders football players recognized at the athletic awards ceremony were (l-r), Aidan Deutsche - most valuable player, Austin Harris - sportsmanship award, Jeremiah Wynn - coach's award, Nictavious Cain - best offensive player, and Nathaniel Delancey - captain's award. Not pictured Bryson Dawkins - best defensive player.