
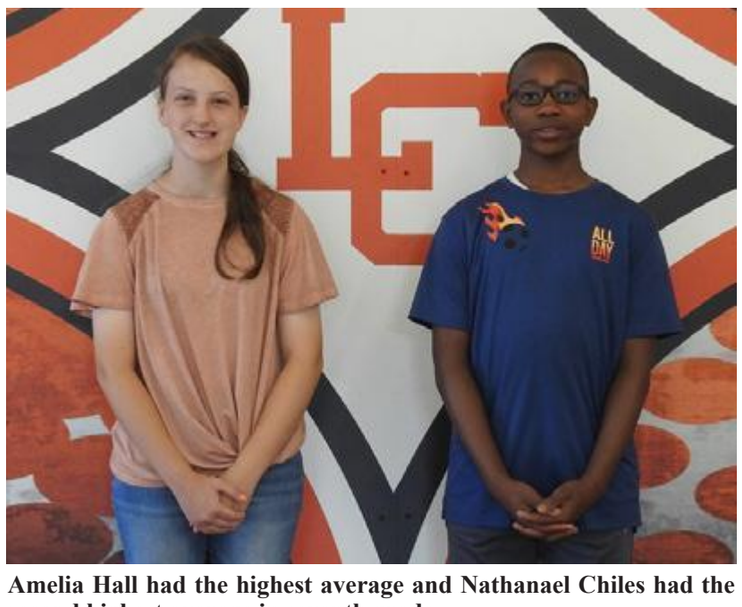
Bryar Rhoden had the highest average and Grace Qualls had the second highest average in sixth grade.



Amelia Hall had the highest average and Nathanael Chiles had the second highest average in seventh grade.

Aubrey Welch (right) had the highest average and Emma Grace Cliatt the second highest average in eighth grade.

LCMS recognizes student achievements at awards night

Lincoln County Middle School held its Academic Awards Night on Tuesday, May 25. Students receiving the second highest grade point average in their respective classes addressed those present. First to speak was seventh-grader Nathanael Chiles, welcoming students and guests, followed by sixth-grader Grace Quallshas leading in the Pledge of Allegiance, and eighth-grader Aubrey Welch, led the prayer.

Students receiving the highest average in their respective classes were then introduced by principal Tonya Burt. Sixth-grader Bryar Rhoden, seventh-grader Amelia Hall, and eighth-grader Emma Grace Cliatt gave their class addresses.

The following awards were then presented to the following students:

Perfect Attendance Awards were presented to students who were present every single designated school day, every single class period of the school day, without any early check-outs or tardies. According to Burt a perfect attendance award is not easy to earn.

Students receiving this designation were: sixth grade – Christian Hopkins, Amber Smalley, and Kennede' Wideman; and seventh grade – Amelia Hall and Justice Norman. There were no eighth-graders.

Student of the Week awards were presented to sixth-graders Anna Mae Dawkins, Joel Delancey, Aysha Elam, Kelsey Gibbs, Peyton Hinson, Patricia Huffman, Jalayah Jones, Jacobe Moss, and Bryar Rhoden; seventh-graders Jakayla Calhoun, Katy Glenn Chapman, Nathanael Chiles, Christian Elam, Kristian Glover, Amelia Hall, Kate McWhorter, Tripp Parks, Forston Partridge, and Phoenix Webber; and eighth-graders John Banks, Jonathan Banks, Kalynn Bargeron, Christian Crite, Mariah Cross, Lillie Dawkins, Cayden Glaze, Ethan Washington, and India Wright.

Good Citizenship Awards were presented to sixth-graders Joel Delancey and Patricia Huffman; seventh-graders Christian Elam and Kate McWhorter; and eighth-graders Ethan Washington and Mariah Cross.

Students recognized for achieving the highest averages for academic subjects were:

Sixth grade language arts – Triston Jones, Carmen Rivera, and Skyler Simons; accelerated math – Bryar Rhoden; math – Joel Delancey and Skyler Simons; science – Grace Qualls and Skyler Simons; and social studies – Grace Qualls, Bryar Rhoden, and Skyler Simons.

Seventh grade language arts – Amelia Hall, Emmie Minyard, and Shaniya Cross; accelerated math – Nathanael Chiles and Brooklyn Seagraves; math – Adelee McNeese and Shaniya Cross; science – Nathaniel Chiles, Ali Cox, Ameila Hall, and Shaniya Cross; and social studies – Kate McWhorter and Shaniya Cross.

Eighth grade language arts – Aubrey Welch and Demarious Ivey; accelerated math – Emma Grace Cliatt; math – India Wright and Demarious Ivey; science – Emma Grace Cliatt, Tarrans Hogan, Demarious Ivey, and Jaden Wynn; and social studies – Emma Grace Cliatt and Demarious Ivey.

The following students earned averages of 90-94 and received certificates of honor:

Sixth grade – Lucy Bailey, Nahum Chiles, Joel Delancey, Aysha Elam, Caleb Harding, Austin Harris, Christian Hopkins, Patricia Huffman, Parker Jordan, Addisyn McKee, Noah Ogletree, Carmen Rivera, Bailyn Roberson, and Andew Washington.

Seventh grade – Lana Amato, Jakayla Calhoun, Nytavious Carter, Ryan Crite, Thomas Crook, Christian Elam, Kadence Elam, Chandla Leverette, Whitney McCauley, Joseph Morris, Alyssa Parker, Aidan Truitt, Davin Turman, Phoenix Webber, Natalie Wellmaker, Madison Wheatley, Trenesseya Wright and Jeremiah Wynn.

Eighth grade – Mason Ball, Kalynn Bargeron, Shernoriah Bussey, Angel Carroll, Alton Deal, Landon Garrison, Christian Harris, Jordan Hilton, Camia Knotts, Trinijah Mason, Tripp Nelson, Hannah Norman, Eli Partridge, Annaliese Pearson, and India Wright.

The following students earned averages of 95 to 100 and received certificates of distinction:

Sixth grade – McKenzie Curry, Trayon Jones, Triston Jones, Jacobe Moss, Grace Qualls, Bryar Rhoden, Skyer Simons, and Hannah Williams.

Seventh grade – Tucker Bentley, Katy Glenn Chapman, Nathanael Chiles, Ali Cox, Brayden Crook, Shaniya Cross, Kristian Glover, Banks Griffith, Amelia Hall, John Hodnett, Kenya Jones, Mary Claire Matthews, Addie McNeese, Kate McWhorter, Thomas McWhorter, Emmie Minyard, Justice Norman, Tripp Parks, Fortson Partridge, Allie drake Robertson, Brooklyn Seagraves, Catherine Seals, and Kylah Turner.

Eighth grade – Kaitlyn Banks, Emma Grace Cliatt, Nate Delancey, Tarrans Hogan, Demarious Ivey, Brooke Phillips, Lily Ratliff, Aubrey Welch, and Jaden Wynn.

Students receiving trophies for receiving the second highest average were: sixth grade - Grace Qualls; seventh grade - Nathanael Chiles; and eighth grade - Aubrey Welch.

Students receiving trophies for the highest average were: sixth grade - Bryar Rhoden; seventh grade - Amelia Hall; and eighth grade - Emma Grace Cliatt.

The Scholar Athlete Award at LCMS was established with the purpose of celebrating individual students who participated in athletics during the school year while maintaining academic averages of 90 or higher.

The following students have earned this honor during the 2020-21 school year:

Sixth grader - Lucy Bailey, Nahum Chiles, McKenzie Curry, Joel Delancey, Aysha Elam, Austin Harris, Christian Hopkins, Tryon Jones, Triston Jones, Parker Jordan, Jacobe Moss, Noah Ogletree, Grace Qualls, Bryar Rhoden, Andrew Washington, and Hannah Williams.

Seventh grade – Lana Amato, Jakayla Calhoun, Katy Glenn Chapman, Nathanael Chiles, Ali Cox, Ryan Crite, Brayden Crook, Christian Elam, Kadence Elam, Amelia Hall, John Hodnett, Kenya Jones, Chandla Leverette, Mary Claire Matthews, Addie McNeese, Kate McWhorter, Thomas McWhorter, Emmie Minyard, Joseph Morris, Justice Norman, Alyssa Parker, Tripp Parks, Fortson Partridge, Allie Drake Robertson, Brooklyn Seagraves, Catherine Seals, Aidan Truitt, Davin Turman, Kylah Turner, Phoenix Webber, Natalie Wellmaker, Madison Wheatley, Trenesseya Wright, and Jeremiah Wynn.

Eight grade – Kalynn Bargeron, Shernoriah Bussey, Angel Carroll, Emma Grace Cliatt, Alton Deal, Nate Delancey, Landon Garrison, Christian Harris, Jordin Hilton, Hannah Norman, Eli Partridge, Annaliese Pearson, Lily Ratliff, and India Wright.

Scholar Band Awards were presented to students who participated in the marching band during the school year while maintaining academic averages of 90 or higher:

Seventh grade – Nathanael Chiles, Kristian Glover, John Hodnett, Whitney McCauley, and Catherine Seals.

Eighth grade – Hannah Norman and Eli Partridge.

Closing remarks were made by Superintendent Dr. Samuel Light.

(Photos ccontinue on page 7)

Pine Pine Needle Garden Poetry Club certificates were presented to 0Nate Delancey and Brooke Phillips

Sixth grade students receiving the highest average in academic subject areas were (l-r) Triston Jones, Skyler Simons, Bryar Rhoden, Joel Delancey, and Grace Qualls

Seventh grade students receiving the highest average in subject areas were (l-r) Amelia Hall, Emmie Minyard, Shaniya Cross, Nathanael Chiles, Brooklyn Seagraves, Adelee McNeese, Ali Cox, and Kate McWhorter.

Eighth grade students receiving the highest average in subject areas were (l-r) Aubrey Welch, Emma Grace Cliatt, and India Wright.