It doesn't matter who you are or where you are on life's journey, you are welcome here.

By BEV OBERT

This past week has been one of disgust, sadness, and shock at the actions of those rioters in Washington D.C. They do not represent the majority who hold our constitution and the capital as beacons of freedom. Last week a few trampled on this belief and now are ashamed of their actions. Through this, the words of the 23rd Psalm have stayed with me.

We all know it. "The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever."

The Lord is with us always, at all times and in all situations. God protects us, provides for us, and restores us. A few people last week tried to destroy the peaceful transfer of leadership in our country. They did not succeed. A power greater, than they, protects us. A power greater, than they, leads us to still waters and down paths of righteousness.

Here's the thing...when trouble comes we can take comfort in these words of the 23rd Psalm. We can move forward in confidence knowing that God is with us and protects us. Thanks Be to God.
