 Chair Marc Bralts. “Kelly will hit the ground running as she is already established and well regarded with our staff, agency partners, and local and national foodbank organizations. We are very excited to have Kelly continue in the direction charted by Jim Hires as he retires.” “Kelly Daly stepping into this role is welcome news to the communities we serve and our over 170 agency partners,” said EIF President and CEO Jim Hires. “The success and growth of the Foodbank the last several years would not have been possible without her effort, her skills, her passion and her insight into the needs of those we serve. Her recognition by fellow food bankers, both regionally and nationally, as a strategic thinker and operational leader is well deserved.”
