

Health-care savings for employers part of a custom wellness solution

From HSHS MEDICAL GROUP

HSHS Medical Group's LeadWell services offer a wide range of customizable wellness solutions for business. These programs educate and empower employees to make choices toward a healthier and more balanced lifestyle.

Employee health can be one of the greatest assets to your company. It has the power to lower insurance costs while reducing sick days and creating greater productivity as well as happier, more vested employees. Consider it your competitive edge.

LeadWell is a comprehensive corporate wellness program supported by HSHS Medical Group—the region's premier health care specialists. Tap into LeadWell's resources to improve your employees' health and your organization's bottom line.

Benefits

Whether on-site (at your workplace) or near-site (convenient to your location), access to a LeadWell clinic makes quality health care affordable and convenient for your employees.

- Improve employee health and reduce absenteeism
- Cost savings of 30 percent to 50 percent over traditional office visits

- No claims submitted to medical plan
- Reduction in catastrophic claims through early detection and prevention
- Lab rates 40 percent to 60 percent lower than traditional lab pricing
- Exclusive to employer groups resulting in little to no wait time

Services

LeadWell provides convenient access to many services typically received at a primary care office at little to no cost for your colleagues and their dependents ages 5 and older. Your business and the employee will save on medical care expenses, increasing employee satisfaction and retention.

While the service offerings are customizable, the most frequently utilized are treatment of minor illnesses/injuries, such as bronchitis, ear infection, pink eye, sore throat, sinus infection, sprains/ strains, and wound care. Physical exams, wellness screenings, flu shots, immunizations, school/sports physicals, TB testing, lab work, rapid-screen diagnostic tests and prescription services are also top priorities for employers. LeadWell offers significantly reduced rates for these services.
