Bradford Scholar Rebecca Walter gave her classmates some encouragement as they headed off to their appointed destinies.

"As we walk off this stage with our diplomas, we will be walking into a life filled with responsibilities," Walter said. "Each one of us has our own dreams and ambitions. As we start our journeys, I would like you to all remember that you were made with a purpose."

Walter quoted Jeremiah 29:11 and shared the story of Gideon, reminding her classmates that no matter what troubles may come in the following days, months or years, the BHS Class of 2022 has much to look forward to.

"Every one of us has a bright future ahead," Walter said. "However, in order to see this bright future become a reality, we must first believe it can happen. There are countless stories throughout the Bible and history of people just like you that saw amazing things happen. These people are just like us. They are human. They had doubts and fears just like us, but they decided to look past those limitations and believe that something great was ahead of them."

In closing, Walter quoted Dr. Suess. "You are braver than you believe, stronger than you seem and smarter than you think," she said. "These words are so true. Over the past four years, the Class of 2022 has faced countless challenges, both individually and as a whole. Some of these challenges seemed unbearable. I encourage you, no matter where life takes you, always remember to believe in yourself and believe in who God made you to be."
