

Visitors welcome at Salem Missionary Baptist Church

Salem Missionary Baptist Church was founded in 1872 in Humboldt. They have a rich history full of wonderful leadership and faith filled works from those that have heard the calling into ministry. Some of those former pastors include Rev. Henderson, Rev. Rogers, Rev. Ferrell, Rev. Ragsdale, Rev. Alston, Rev. Wakefield, Rev. Ozier and Rev. Harris.

These pastors left a legacy behind and more than one pair of shoes to fill, but the newest pastor of Salem Missionary Baptist Church was up to the task. Paster, Rev. Daniel Donaldson, along with assistant pastor, Rev. Daniel Wynne, lead the church through the worship and celebration of Jesus Christ. Every week they are accompanied by sounds of praise from the music director Dr. Daniel Donaldson II.

Children and youth are welcome to Salem Missionary Baptist as well with godly leadership of their own.

The children's directors for the church as well as the youth directors are the husband and wife team of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson. Salem Missionary Baptist Church welcomes visitors on multiple services on Sundays and Wednesday throughout the week where they share the good news of the gospel.
