Chapel Hill Baptist has deep roots

Chapel Hill Baptist Church is a Southern Baptist church founded in 1846 in Milan, Tenn.

The mission and vision of Chapel Hill Baptist Church is to make disciples and advance the Gospel in their homes, communities and throughout the world. Each of the ministries within the church focuses on the same priorities: the Word of God, the Praises of God, the People of God and the Ministry of God.

Chapel Hill gathers weekly for worship and connection group that are small group Bible Studies for children, students and adults.

Service times are: Sunday school - 9:15 a.m.; Sunday morning worship - 9:30 a.m.; Wednesday night worship - 6:30 p.m.

“Serving is a great way to connect with the church community and make a difference,” said Lead Pastor Todd Brady. “We believe God has given all believers gifts, abilities and passions, and we want to help everyone to find theirs and the best places they can connect.”

Chapel Hill Baptist Church is located at 76 Chapel Hill Rd. in Milan. More information is available on the church's website at www.chapelhillonline.net.

Pigg, Kirk lead Salem Baptist Church

Salem Baptist Church has been serving the Gibson County Community since 1847 when it was first founded. They are under the current leadership of Pastor Joel Pigg and associate pastor Todd Kirk. Every week they are accompanied by the sounds of the spirit instilled within the worship minister Steven Tate who uses his God-given gift for the glory of God and spreading his praise.

Salem Baptist Church invites members and visitors to worship with them on Sundays and Wednesdays every week. On Sunday, they meet for Sunday school before holding a worship service at 10:30 a.m. Later in the evening, they gather again to discuss the word of God for an afternoon service at 6 p.m. On Wednesday evenings, after work and school, they host another evening service starting at 6:30 p.m. where everyone is welcome to attend. Visitors wanting to check out the church before attending in person can view them on Facebook and YouTube. Salem Baptist Church leads their congregation under the mission of exalting, educating and edifying.
