

Gann Community Church celebrating 50 years

Gann Community Church had its humble beginnings 50 years ago when Bro. Wrice Powers and other founding members started a non-demonational church called Salem Community Mission in 1972. Two years later the old Gann Community School building was purchased and years of renovation began. In 1976, the name was changed to Gann Community Church.

In 1982, Bro. Wrice Powers resigned due to his health and Bro. Jimmy Ricketts stepped in and served as interim pastor for two years. In 1985, Bro. Ed Epperson became the third pastor of Gann Community Church until his death in 2019. After serving as interim pastor for a few months, Bro. Terry Branscum was elected Gann's fourth pastor later that year and still serves in that role today.

Gann Community Church remains a nondemonational family of Christian believers rooted in the Godly principles and Christian faith as that of our founding members. They sincerely invite visitors to join them in fellowship, worship and praise on Sundays and Wednesday evenings.
