

Humboldt Church of Christ first met in old courthouse

Humboldt Church of Christ's congregation was formed in 1910 through a tent meeting where they continued meeting in the old courthouse until a building was constructed on Mitchell St. The church moved to its current location on North 30th Avenue in 1967.

Members of the Humboldt Church of Christ meet every week on both Sundays and Wednesday to worship the Lord. On Sunday, they hold Bible study at 9 a.m. and follow that with a worship service at 10 a.m. After breaking for lunch, the congregation meets back at the church for an afternoon service held at 7 p.m. Humboldt Church of Christ also meets with members and visitors on Wednesday evenings for a bible study at 7 p.m.
