A global restaurant known for its wings, fries and sides is coming soon to The Market at Czech Hall.

“We broke ground on the outparcel right next to Taco Casa. We are going to be putting in a multi-tenant building. It’s going to be a Sleep Number and Wingstop.

The Joint Chiropractic will also be joining that line up,” said GBT Realty Leasing Coordinator Lauren Hyman.

The Market at Czech Hall is really growing and they are looking for a couple more tenants at this site.

“It’s still dirt right now. We’re still looking for a few more tenants to round that out,” said Hyman.

Wingstop quickly became a fan favorite when they first opened their doors in 1994.

What began as a small buffalo-style chicken wing restaurant in Garland, Texas, continues to soar to great heights.

Today there are more than 1,500 restaurants open across the globe.

Wingstop is the destination when you crave fresh never faked wings, hand-cut seasoned fries and any of their famous sides. They also serve fresh baked rolls and desserts.

Wingstop prides itself in their proprietary recipes, outstanding food and superior customer service.

They say it’s created a demand for more locations across the country.

“We’re all about taking our wings to another level, saucing and tossing the freshest flavors you crave along the way,” says Wingstop.
