

Luigi's Bistro a local hidden gem

By Steve Coulter
Co-Publisher

The West Metro's best kept secret is an Italian restaurant located in Westbury.

Luigi's Bistro at Westbury is a family owned and operated Italian-American restaurant located at the former Westbury Golf Course.

It's situated inside the OakHaven community. Just go past the gates and you'll find a local hidden gem.

In 1951, Luigi Scaffetta brought his Italian cuisine from his family owned restaurant The Hide-A-Way in Batavia New York to Chickasha Oklahoma and later to Anadarko.

His restaurants were always family owned and operated and they continue that tradition today.

Luigi's family has revived his signature appetizers, pizza, entrees and desserts to bring you fresh homemade authentic Italian cuisine.

"We decided to bring real Italian to the communities of Mustang and Yukon. We cook everything fresh. Anything you see on the menu is cooked fresh right there in the restaurant," said Luigi's Bistro at Westbury Owner Jorge Chavira.

Luigi's has a large menu that includes steaks, burgers, pizzas, lasagna, spaghetti, desserts and much more.

They take great pride in serving the community and being locally owned and operated.

"We are local. We moved to Mustang to be part of the community. My kids go to Mustang Schools," said Chavira.

The restaurant is growing in business every day and getting great reviews from happy customers.

"The food is delicious and portions are huge. Staff is very attentive and friendly. I can't say enough great things about this place! We will be back!" said Holly Jones.

"Amazing food and wait staff! I have never been to a better Italian restaurant," said Lily Williams.

Luigi's Bistro at Westbury is located off Morgan Road between S.W. 15th and 29th Street.

"We have a big sign on Morgan Road. It's easy to get there," said Chavira.

Swig makes a splash with fountain drinks

By Steve Coulter
Co-Publisher

Swig, a drive-thru soda bar from Utah, is serving up refreshing drinks in West OKC.

"Swig is home of the 'dirty soda'. That's what we call ourselves. We are super proud of our drinks and we pride ourselves on consistency," said Swig General Manager Hyrum Godwin.

The company is centered around fountain drinks with a twist. The brands signature Dirty Soda is a combination of popular soft drinks and your choice of delicious flavors and mix-ins.

In addition to sodas, they offer energy drinks, teas, hot chocolate, cookies and pretzel bites.

They want your drink experience to be super fun and positive.

"Anybody that comes to Swig is going to leave with a smile. Our team strives to be the happiest they can be and most positive they can be. It's a super fun environment and we love our customers to death," said Godwin.

Swig got it's start in 2010 in Saint George Utah. Owner and Founder Nicole Tanner was brainstorming with her husband one night about possible business ideas. He suggested a drive-by drink shop, something they both agreed could be successful.

They opened their first location across the street from Dixie State University in April of 2010.

Swig has since expanded

See SWIG, page 25

