Crossroads Dinner Theater resumes at Fellowship Ch.

After a 2-year pandemic-induced layoff, Crossroads Community Theater will present "A Cricket County Colorado Christmas," by Eddie McPherson, Nov. 25, 26, and 27.

The irrepressible country and city cousins ski-daddle on up to the mountains to hit the slopes for their Christmas vacation and romance is in the air! But it's all downhill from there as a blizzard hits, the ski lifts close, and the cousins interfere with a budding romance.

There will be four performances this year, with shows at 6:30 p.m. on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, plus a matinee at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday. Friday and Saturday evening will feature full dinner shows for $12.00 for adults and $6.00 for children under 12. The Sunday performances will include dessert only, for $7.00 for adults and $3.50 for children under 12. (Children under age 4 are always free.) To accommodate better social distancing, each of the 12 tables will be restricted to seating for 6.

For reservations, call the church office at (828) 495-8086, making sure to leave a phone number.

Fellowship Church is located at the intersection of Icard Ridge and Fellowship Church Roads (at 833 Icard Ridge Road), one mile south of West Middle School (just west of Highway 127) in Bethlehem.

Fellowship Church has successful golf tourney

It was a perfect day for golf at Brushy Mountain Golf Club in Taylorsville on Saturday, October 8, 2022, for the Seventeenth Annual Fellowship Church Golf Challenge. A full field of 18 teams gathered for this year's contest, hosted by Fellowship Advent Christian Church of Bethlehem.

This year's event raised $5,785.00 to assist with various mission projects through Advent Christian Penny Crusade for Missions. The hosts would like to thank all of the participants, and especially the 29 personal and corporate sponsors who donated $150.00 per hole to assure that this worthy project was a big success.

As for the golfing competitors, first place in the A Flight of this captain's choice format event went to the team of Terry Young, Doyle Wyant, Dwayne Wyant, and Bo Whisnant, with a score of 54. Second place in the A flight went to the team of John Bentley, Tammy Johnson, Greg and Hunter Liddle, with a score of 56.

First place in the B Flight went to Mark Ervin, Aaron Steen, Wade Claussen and Dan Dickerson, with a score of 62. Second place went to the team of Lynn Preslar, Dwayne Jonas, Justin and Ryan Smith, with a score of 65.

In the C Flight, first place was taken by the team of Kris Auton, Andrew Auton, Sydney Steele, and Drew Dyson, with a score of 66, while second place went to the brothers team of Ethan, Isaac, Josh and Ben Walsh, with a score of 73.

Despite valiant efforts, no one claimed the $10,000 cash prize for acing the par 3 #11 hole (insured by Hole-in-One International of Reno, NV), but Raymond Caldwell won closest to the pin honors there. Other closest to the pin winners were Brent Ross on #5, Lynn Teague on #8, and Brennen James on #15. Longest drive winner was Brennen James on hole #2 and also on hole #10. All 72 contestants were treated to a delicious barbecue lunch at the club house restaurant, and returned home well fed and determined to defend their honor (and, for some to improve their fate) at next year's challenge, set for October 7, 2023.
