"Not Just A Feed Store Anymore"

If ever a business had a perfect motto, it's Day & Day Feed Mill in Columbia.

Since its humble beginnings in the 1950s, Day & Day has grown to a business earning both local and state accolades, and even recognition nationally in the U.S. Senate.

In 2009, a new Day & Day headquarters was established on the site of the original family mill, and the rest, as they say, is history.
