More Time At Bethlehem

By Helen Vogt Greene

Epiphany is that special time of the first Sunday after January 1. No one will disagree that this Christmas, with its strange Covid-19 days, allowed most of us a special time to find the true meaning of Christmas in our hearts and to share this with others.

For the past two years the First Presbyterian Church of Lake Worth has allowed its members and guests an opportunity to visit Bethlehem upfront and personally. Timing has allowed Bethlehem to remain in place and to be enjoyed for Epiphany.

Once again, God has used the talents of Maria Isabel Montes, artist and instructor for the First Presbyterian Church to create the marvelous, God-inspired diorama of Bethlehem. Each aspect and detail, which is added to each year, shows Bethlehem at the time when Jesus was born and the Magi would have visited Him.

Epiphany are the Holy Days of the Magi (Wise Men), who are recognized by most as wealthy Greek philosophers, perhaps from Persia. They followed the stars to bring gifts to the new King of the Jews.

After seeing Jesus, giving him gifts fit for a king of gold, Frankincense and Myrrh, listening to the message from God, they 'depart another way', returning to their homeland.

Thanks to the timing and the talents of Maria Montes this Epiphany and Bethlehem have been enriched and a blessing to those who take the time to see their importance.

Epiphany Bethlehem has been enjoyed by many. This magnificent diorama is where the Magi found the Baby Jesus, Mary and Joseph. Each year, Maria Isabel Montes, artist/instructor of the First Presbyterian Church adds a new element to her masterpiece.
