action in the game.

In her first game in one and a half years, Rachel scored 12 points - including a three-pointer which tied up the game at the half.

Jaterra Coffey led the Lakers in scoring with 13 points, followed by Hannah Yates with 10, Aniyah Coffey had nine, Karly Luttrell with seven, Maleah Preston and Sophie Shearer each had six points and Addison Hart had three.

Russell County improved to 8-17 on the season and Adair County held 5-16 record.

In the second game of the night, the Indians and Lakers battled it out in a crosstown rivalry.

In a close, physical game that saw Adair County in foul trouble early, the Lakers were able to gain the lead and hang on to it to win 74-62.

The Lakers shot 59.5 percent from the field and 79 percent from the free throw line.

Trace Stringer led the Lakers in scoring with 28 points.

He was seven out of 12 from behind the three point line.

Mayes Gosser had 25 points and nine rebounds, and was perfect from the free throw line.

Braydon Cerrato had 10 points, Owen Loy had eight, and Maxon Gosser had three.

The Lakers improved to 4-19 on the season, the Indians fell to 15-9.

The Lady Lakers and Lakers finished out their regular season this week with a boy/girl double header at Rockcastle County.

They begin district tournament Monday night, February 21 at Clinton County High School.

Lady Laker Rachel Bolin blazed back from injury to score 12 points over the Adair County Indians last week. Bolin's three-pointer gave the Lakers an edge just before halftime.

We wish the Lakers & Lady Lakers the best at District!
