Hansel & Gretel Opens This Week

By Abby Richards

The Russell County Arts Council presents the Children's Theater in Hansel and Gretel!

The Star Theater, on Main St., in Russell Springs, is excited to bring you this hilarious adaptation of the children's story Hansel & Gretel, adapted by Vera Morris, directed by Tyler Flatt and Tabitha Mann on February 18, 19, 20, 25, 26, and 27.

Hansel drank most of the milk for the poor family's supper!

Now Mother is upset and has sent the two children into the dark forest to collect berries for dinner.

Earlier, the gypsy had warned them and the neighbor children about the forest.

From animals and mythical creatures, to trolls and hobgoblins, the forest is filled with magic and danger!

So what will they do if they run into these creatures, or worse, the Gingerbread Witch of the mountain?

Can Gretel's intelligence get her and her brother out of this situation?

Playing Hansel and Gretel is Brooks Bailey and his sister, Allie Bailey, who are working hard to bring these beloved characters to life on the stage.

Many of the other faces you'll see are returning actors who have performed in numerous plays in the past including Samantha Harden, as the Gingerbread Witch, Kristina Daffron, as Mother, and Weston Loy playing Father.

Some newer faces to the stage include Bryson Morgan playing Frederick, a neighbor child, Madison Stargel as Sandman, and Ryder Bertram as Casper, along with many others.

Although the actors on stage are responsible for bringing the characters to life, this play would not be possible were it not for the wonderful crew.

The lighting designed by Dylan Harrison, and controlled by Leah Stephens, sound by Macayla Vaughan, costumes by Brenda Dial, and set by Tyler Flatt and Brad Barnes take the audience back into the 1300's in Germany.

So come on down on February 18, 19, 20, 25, 26, or 27.

Show times are Fridays and Saturdays at 7 p.m., and Sundays at 2 p.m.

Bring your friends and family to enjoy the Star's rendition of Hansel and Gretel.

The play is produced by special arrangement with Pioneer Drama Service, Inc., Denver, Colorado.
