

RCHS Bowling Team Brings Home Accolades

by Brad Rexroat

The Laker Bowling Team Competed in the KHSAA 2nd Region Tournament on Jan 27th, 28th, and Feb 2nd. Our Lady Lakers competed in the team event on the 27th and received the #2 seed after the qualifying game. In the first round of the bracket our Lady Lakers had a bye to advance to the second round against Fort Knox High School. In the bracket rounds the first team to win three games advance to the next round.

Our Lady Lakers fought hard but were defeated 3 games to 2 to finish the tournament in 5th place. Our Laker Boys competed in the team event on the 28th and received the #1 seed after the qualifying game. In the first round of the bracket our Lakers had a bye to advance to the next round against Bardstown High School. Our Lakers easily took the first three games to advance to the next round where they faced John Hardin High School. Our Lakers won the first game but were defeated the next three to finish the region tournament in 3rd place. On Feb 2nd Makayla Melson, Korrin Therrien, Hailey Pankop, and Karlie Scaggs competed in the Girls Singles Event. After three games Korrin finished in 12th place. Karlie, Hailey, and Makayla made the top 8 cut to advance to the semi-finals where they bowled two more games. With 5 games bowled, Hailey finished in 6th place, Karlie was in 3rd place and Makayla in 1st place to advance into the top 4 Step Ladder Finals. Karlie was defeated by North Hardin's Yasmin Padro in the first game of the step ladder to finish the tournament in 4th place. Yasmin won her next match against Central Hardin's Samantha Stevens to advance to the championship game against Makayla. Makayla jumped out to an early lead and never let up to defeat Yasmin 165-144 to be named the 2022 2nd Region Girls Champion!!!

Dylan Stringer, Nick Blakey, Will Aaron, and Wyatt Neale Competed in the Boys Singles Event. After 3 games Wyatt finished in 21st place, Will finished in 16th place. Nick and Dylan made the top 8 cut to advance to the semi-finals where they bowled two more games. With 5 games bowled Dylan was in 4th place and Nick was in 1st place to advance to the top 4 step ladder finals. Dylan defeated John Hardin's Kyle Warden in the first game of the step ladder to advance to the semi-final game against Taylor County's Jakeb Kelsay. Dylan had a close match but defeated Jakeb 212-203 to advance to the championship game against Nick.

With two Lakers bowling for first and second Coaches Brad Rexroat and Linda Edwards were having as much fun as they were. Dylan found his groove and defeated Nick 258-191 to be named the 2022 2nd Region Boys Champion!! With Nick taking runner-up!! Makayla, Karlie, Dylan, and Nick all advanced to the KHSAA State Tournament held at Executive Strike & Spare in Louisville. On Feb 7th Makayla and Karlie competed in the Girls Singles Event. After 3 games Karlie finished in 32nd place and Makayla finished in 26th place in the state.

On Feb 8th Dylan and Nick competed in the Boys Singles Event. After 3 games both made the top 8 cut with Nick in 2nd place and Dylan in 4th place to advance to the semi-finals where they bowled two more games. With 5 games bowled Dylan finished in 5th place and Nick finished in 6th place in the state.
