

Girl's Youth League Basketball Teams

Black Team

Coaches Brad Burch and Brad Wilkerson
Tinley Rixon, Briley Bennett, Ava Wilkerson, Jenna Mann, Piper Burch, Rylee Jolly, Aislinn Dutton, Ava McFarland

Blue Team

Coach Troy Coffey
Bianca Coffey, Kiara Coffey, Tatum Durham, McKinley Means, Kerigan Aaron, Reese Antle, Madison Crew, Camri Coffey, Mollie Gibson, Harper Stearns

Gray Team

Coaches Debbie Wilson and Chelsea Edmonds
Linden-Kate Wilson, Laykan Turner, Keely Burton, Madelyn Bunch, Addison Slavey, Jayce Slavey, Raylie Pelston, Abigail Edmonds, Audree Marcum, Mercedes Sanchez

Pink Team

Roselynn Banks, Kate Hoskins, Adalyn Tiller, Allie Roberts, Aubree Bennett, Kinsley Wilson, Sofia Lopez, Ava Aitken, Baylee Riddle,

Red Team

Coaches Adam Ellis and Tyler McGowan
Marlee McGowan, Abigail Robertson Landri Ellis, Milo DeVore, Marian Helm, Stella Hammond, Marley Ferguson, Abbigail Hodge, Sarah Hopper, Rosalee Tucker

White Team

Coaches Josh Root and Ryan Abrell
Olivia Stephens, Claire Holmes, Lyla Root, Kambyr Bradshaw, Vaeda Murray, Hadlee Rigney, Belinda Fuentes, Paisley Bates

Photo Credits Jessica Gossage

Sponsored by:

March 8, 2012
Clean up continues from an EF2 tornado that ravaged parts of Southern Russell County last week.
RCHS and RCMS campuses now tobacco free at all times.
State Police investigated a ATV accident involving James Collett, 37, of Jabez. Mr. Collett was flown to UK for treatment of his injuries.
The Russell County Lakers Basketball team had their postseason run ended by Bowling Green in the semi-finals of the fourth region tournament at E.A. Diddle Arena by a score of 66-56.

RCHS Alumni Game benefits local Relay For Life.
March 7, 2002
Fire Fighters battled fires at the homes of Roger and Patty Chapman and Bonnie Gregory.
Investigation into city finances of the former Russell Springs City Commission continues by the Attorney General's office
Executive Director of Russell County Tourism Portia Gosser met with Governor

Paul Patton and Tourism Development Secretary Ann Lata during a recent conference in Frankfort.
RCHS Lakers finish as district runners-up, and earn spot in regional tournament.
March 5, 1992
Lee Williams, whose entire family was killed in the infamous 1988 Carrollton bus crash, spoke at a rally organized by Rev. Jerry Howerton, chairman of Citizens for a Dry County.
Lady Lakers advance to final of the district tournament.

Former Russell County coach Jim Voight won his 600th basketball game.
A Jamestown landmark, a 50,000 gallon water tank located at the end of Adams Street in Jamestown, will come down.
March 9, 1982
The Sheriff's Department and the City of Russell Springs were busy continuing their crack down on illegal sales of alcoholic beverages.
The remains of an unidentified woman between the ages of 25 and 30 was found in an abandoned house near the Adair-Russell County line. The victim had been shot.

Rufus Shearer was honored for his service to the city. Mr. Shearer was recognized for his 26 years with the Jamestown Police Department.
The Russell County Boys Basketball season came to an end as they were defeated by Lincoln County 84-74.
March 9, 1972
A new cafeteria opened at the Russell

County High School.
Curtis Snow was found not guilty of the murder of James Maynard.
The Russell County Lakers Basketball team won the 47th District Tournament in Monticello.
The Russell County High School Cheerleaders won the District Cheerleading Award and advanced to the Region for further competition.
Rippetoe Funeral Home became equipped with ambulance service to meet all requirements of Medicare.