

Laker Baseball Begins Season with 12-2 Route of Barren Co.

By Lisa Coffey
Times Journal

A third inning rally helped the Russell County Mighty Laker Baseball team grasp their season-opener against Barren County.

Russell County racked up six runs in one inning to seal the Trojan's fate at Laker Field Saturday.

Laker Isaac Roy's

single secured one run, followed by a single by Nick Aaron which scored another run.

Evan Hammond's double led to a Russell County run - with a walk from Cody Luttrell allowing another run for the Laker.

Aiden Antle's single through the field let two teammates cross the plate.

Laker Mayes Gosser's strong shot in the fourth winning was one of two home runs for the day.

Teammate Hammond was three for three at the plate, and joined Gosser in the home run club.

Pitcher Luttrell earned a win for Russell County.

Laker Nathan Lawson touched the plate while attempting to score in Saturday's season opener.

Russell County Laker Third Baseman Maxon Gosser got the out against a Barren County Trojan Saturday at Laker Field.

Laker Senior Sophie Shearer watched for the call while at bat against Taylor County.

Lady Lakers Blast Back Against Taylor County To Win Season Opener

Staff Report

There was a moment just past the midway point of the Russell County Lady Laker Softball team's season opener when Coach Tonya Rexroat shouted words of encouragement to her team.

"Never give up!" she said from the sidelines, "NEVER!"

And they didn't.

Last Tuesday the Lady Lakers defeated Taylor County 6-3 in a sixth inning rally featuring five runs.

Russell County's win was bolstered by the bats of Jadyn Mann, Mady Hatchett, and Tarryn Reynolds - who all drove in crucial runs.

From the pitcher's mound, Reynolds soldiered through a line-drive to her leg late in the game, and guided to Lakers to their first victory of the season.

Russell County Lady Laker players encouraged each other during last week's season opener.
