Russell County High School (RCHS) Senior, Nick Blakey has signed a letter of intent with Lindsey Wilson College Bowling.

Rexroat said. "I hate to see him go."

Nick was a member of the bowling team that went to state twice: the 2021 region team, and the runner-up region team in 2019.

In singles competition, he was second at regions in 2021 and third at state that same year.

This year, he was sixth at state and runner-up at regions.

Russell County Athletic Director, Michael Carpenter said Nick was a "really good role model" and noted Lindsey Wilson College (LWC) is a "school of high character".

"Nick has a bright future at LWC," LWC Bowling Coach John Meece said

Nick thanked his parents, team, and coaches - calling his experience bowling at RCHS as "undescribable."

This is RCHS Bowling's seventh season and sixth signing.

"Lindsey Wilson is getting an A-class young man," RCHS Bowling Coach Brad

Rexroat said. "I hate to see him go."
