

RUSSELL COUNTY JROTC HAS A BUSY YEAR

SEE PAGES 10 AND 11

TRUSTED

NEWS & INFORMATION

When You Need It Most

Subscribe! Times Journal • 270.866.3191

The Times Journal

WEEK: April 28, 2022

Year 71, No. 42

A member of the Jobe Publishing Inc. News Network

50¢

Glen Ross, of MSE of Kentucky, gave suggestions to the Russell County Industrial Development Authority last week.

Moving Forward

RCIDA takes next step toward agribusiness

By Wade Daffron
TJ Editor

It's all part of the intricacies of industry...

Last week, the Russell County Industrial Development Authority (RCIDA) voted to move forward with a project which could benefit the entire Lake Cumberland area.

In an unanimous vote, MSE of Kentucky was authorized to "further their design" of a building for a future agribusiness training facility, RCIDA Chairman Clint Voils said.

The IDA recently received a $1,854,972 federal grant

RCIDA,

Continued on page 3

WHODUNNIT?

CLUE comes to the Star stage

The cast of CLUE will be looking for you at the Star Theater next weekend.

By Kristina Daffron

It's a dark and stormy night, and you've been invited to a very unusual dinner party.

Each of the guests has an alias, the butler offers a variety of weapons, and the host is, well...dead.

So whodunnit?

Join the iconic oddballs known as Scarlet, Plum, White, Green, Peacock, and Mustard as they race to find the murderer in Boddy Manor before the body count stacks up.

The Star Theater presents CLUE for one weekend only - Thursday, May 5 through Sunday, May 8 - with nightly showtimes at 7 p.m. and matinees at 2 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday.

Based on the cult classic film and the popular board game, CLUE is a madcap comedy that will keep you guessing until the final twist.

CLUE,

Continued on page 2

A billboard promoting the first Lake, Rattle & Roll has been placed along U.S. 127.

Festival coming May 21

Lake, Rattle & Roll Sailing Smoothly

By Renee' Daffron
Times Journal

It's "all aboard" for the first Lake, Rattle & Roll Festival in Jamestown!

Thursday, at the regular monthly meeting of the Jamestown City Council, local entrepreneur Jeff Recker spoke about plans and possibilities for the inaugural event.

Recker said the event recently went "live on

FESTIVAL,

Continued on page 2

"I Didn't Know There Was A Way Out"

SPARC holds OD Awareness event, seeks to have Narcan in local businesses

By Wade Daffron
TJ Editor

For Scott Wells, it was a (literally) sobering statement which helped him on the road to recovery.

"I was sitting in a room," he said. "Someone was speaking, and they said, 'Look around you...someone in here is going to die.'"

Unfortunately, Wells learned that statement was all too true.

Last Wednesday, Wells stood in front of nearly 100 addicts, community leaders, and local officials with a story to tell, a few ideas and opinions, and most importantly, a message of hope.

SPARC Recovery Center Co-Founder Scott Wells spoke last week as part of an Overdose Awareness event.

Wells is a co-founder of SPARC (Sobriety. Peace. Awareness. Recovery. Center.) in Russell Springs.

What may not be

SPARC,

Continued on page 2

Discover Our Digital Copy At

russellcountynewspapers.com

Subscribe online
or call
270-866-3191

Follow Us Online

0 94922 65918 7

RUSSELL COUNTY HOSPITAL

153 Dowell Road

COMMITTED TO YOUR HEALTH

Providing the highest level of quality care and respect for our patients and their families.

Russell Springs, Kentucky 42642

Phone (270) 866-4141