Summertime, and the livin' is Easy

"Summertime, and the livin' is easy Fish are jumpin' and the cotton is high." - Billie Holiday, 1900, Janis Joplin, 1969.

Summertime - it's the most active season. The world awakens and so do I. I seriously joke that if there weren't cold seasons, I'd never get any rest with my desire to grow everything. My inner-hobby-gardener-self is reinventing the outdoor patio room with beautiful, lush plants. As the weather turns warm, I start to dream about plants, fresh herbs and flowers growing everywhere. Yes, it's true. I love summer! Oh, the possibilities are endless!

It's going to be a super busy summer season. This season we will welcome a sweet baby boy to the family.

We are planning the July 4th holiday. I bought my fishing license looking forward to fishing and kayaking. While wondering how I am going to make all this happen, I look forward to a season filled with family, fun and food. So much to do while the weather is warm.

While looking forward to a really busy work season. The path seems to be long with a winding road up a tall, massive mountain, only, I can't see the mountain's peak. I walk conscientiously in faith toward the mountain. Let's go!

"And will you succeed? Yes! You will, indeed! (98 and 3/4 percent guaranteed.) KID, YOU'LL MOVE MOUNTAINS! So... be your name Buxbaum or Bixby..., You're off the Great Places! Today is your day! Your mountain is waiting. So... get on your way! Oh, the Places You Will Go." ~ Dr. Suess

Now, in this busy season, we must take time to enjoy life and take some short summer excursions. And the good news is we live in Kentucky! So many day trips are possible, and we finally feel free to get out and go. There are many events scheduled in the 2022 Kentucky festivals including Somerset's Master Musician Festival featuring Grace Potter. Currently, we have one trip in the planning stage: Mammoth Cave. It's been years since I've visited and exploring it again with my family makes it all the more special. Get a list, your summer schedule and make some plans.

Usually, the best short excursions are spontaneous. Just go!

Remember my friends and readers, embrace Ecclesiastes 3:1-4, "For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance."

Love God and All People. Amen.

FACING A GIANT

Dawn Reed

First Samuel 17 tells a gigantic true story of a young man who fully trusted God.

David stood fearlessly before King Saul. While every other soldier was shaking in his sandals, this young man knew he could defeat that giant, Goliath, who was over nine feet tall. He believed in God. He trusted God. And he remembered what God had already helped him through.

The victories in David's life were still fresh in his mind. Because God had delivered him from the paw of the lion and the paw of the bear, David was positive that He would deliver him-and the entire army of Israel-from this foul-mouthed Philistine that had been wearing them down for 40 days.

David's past faith and strength from the Lord fueled his fight to face this ugly problem without flinching.

This week, my beloved and I spent time with some people we dearly love. There was a tough situation facing us-at least nine feet tall. We knew God is faithful, has always been faithful. We knew that He would answer us, guide us, help us. So we prayed. Again and again.

We remembered past victories/miracles... when He has delivered us from the paw of the lion and the paw of the bear. We remembered when He has pulled us out of the pit, the fiery furnace, and the lion's den. We remembered when He brought food from heaven and when He parted the sea. Looking back at what the Lord has already done in our lives fueled our fight. This Goliath standing before us was no match for the living God.

A popular Christian song asks, "When did He lose His power?" I'll tell you when: NEVER. The God in us is greater than the giant before us.

If you find yourself in the Valley of Elah; if you are facing a giant that is bigger than you; if it feels like it's been more than 40 days; remember what God has already done for you. When He said, "Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the LORD your God will be with you..." (Joshua 1:9), He wasn't kidding. He doesn't break His promises.

"As the Philistine moved closer to attack him, David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet him," I Samuel 17:48. He didn't go in his own strength, but in the strength of God.
