THE CORDS OF DEATH

Dawn Reed

Last Friday evening was our Vacation Bible School pool party. Two-year-old Ryder* was in the kiddie pool. I was standing with his mom at the edge. She never took her eyes off her boy. Suddenly he tipped back and went under water. His mom instantly stepped down and pulled Ryder from the pool. His toddler body was pale and lifeless.

CPR was started immediately. Whitney, a friend and nurse, began chest compressions. She called the boy’s name again and again, then began praying loudly. I stood with the boy’s mom as Breanna, another nurse/friend, took over mouth-to-mouth.

We prayed where we stood. All I could whisper was, “Jesus, Jesus, Jesus.”

Lifeguards came running. Someone called 911.

“Come on Ryder!” Whitney called out, “Come on!” She continued compressions. She. Would. Not. Give. Up. And it saved his life!

The ambulance arrived. The EMTs took over.

As I stood by Ryder’s mom, I thought of how fragile life is.

Two days later, we were at the jail for Bible study. I had planned for weeks to share Psalm 116:1-9. It connected incredibly to Ryder’s story. Before the lesson, I shared the details. Several of the girls wept.

Psalm 116 gives a chilling comparison to what happened at the pool. See if you can picture it... “I love the LORD, for He heard my voice, He heard my cry for mercy ... The cords of death entangled me; the anguish of the grave came upon me. I was overcome by trouble and sorrow. Then I called on the Name of the LORD: LORD, save me!”

The cords of death had entangled Ryder. We were overcome by sorrow and called on the Name of the Lord. He did indeed deliver him from death!

Jesus has pulled our lifeless bodies out of sin, addiction, crisis, or fill in the blank. He is doing everything He can to bring us back to life and He is NOT giving up. Like Whitney, He is yelling, “Come on! Come on!” and calling our names over and over. Are the cords of death entangling you? Are you in great need? Cry out to Him! He hears your voice every single time.

At the hospital, they found that Ryder had had a seizure while in the pool. After a few days in the hospital, he is now home. We praise the Lord and are so very thankful!
